A black and white photograph of the Staunton Military Academy building. The building features a prominent portico with large, fluted columns. In the background, there is an arched entrance with a pediment. Several students are visible near the entrance. In the foreground, a student is walking away from the camera, carrying a bag. The ground appears to be a paved courtyard.

Dedication

The Commandant's office is the nerve center of cadet life, its rewards, privileges, and penalties. There in a whirlwind of activity works a gracious lady, known for her constant good cheer, everpresent smile, and infinite patience in dealing with cadets and their problems.

For all that she has meant to us, especially the humanizing dimensions she has added to our own lives here, we gratefully dedicate this 1973 Blue and Gold to

Mrs. William L. Whitesell, Jr.

In Appreciation

In grateful appreciation to

Colonel Harrison S. Dey

for forty-six years' loyal and devoted service — as teacher, coach, and superintendent — to Staunton Military Academy, its cadets, and faculty.

On January 1, 1973, Colonel Dey became Superintendent Emeritus and a member of the board of HIS Corporation.

Stevens Award

Named for Captain L. Leary Stevens, editor of SMA's first yearbook in 1906 and later a member of the faculty, the Stevens Award was instituted to commemorate the fiftieth anniversary of the Blue and Gold. It is presented annually to seniors and postgraduates who excel in one or more of the following areas: scholarship, athletics and service to the school, military, and character. Seniors already selected for membership in the Alpha Society are not considered for this award.

Alpha Company

Even early in the year, "A" Company jumped to a flying start and they kept improving instead of going downhill. The improvement can be seen in the appearance of their rooms, at parades and in their morale. Captain Paul Thomson, Lieutenants Jim Hinman and Tom English, and 1st Sgt. Sonny Major keep the gang on their toes.

Not every company enjoys drill as much as A Company.

Only half an hour of drill keeps a platoon proficient.

Bravo Company

"B" Company has shown great proficiency in squad drill early this year by winning the competition. Under the leadership of Captain Gus Suarez, Lieutenants Carlos Iraheta and Wayne Platt, and 1st Sgt. Bruce Thomas, they hope to win many more honors including Honor Company for the year.

"Look out Gus, you haven't halted us yet."

Basic training of new boys is not the easiest job in the school.

Company Commander: G. Suarez, Platoon Leaders: W. Platt, C. Iraheta, First Sergeant: B. Thomas, Platoon Sergeants: J. Finke, M. Orr, Staff Sergeant: D. Shipula, Sergeants: W. Anderson, J. Hooser, C. Schwalbach, J. Whitley, R. Winning, Corporals: K. Barb, R. Lacy, M. Nelson, P.F.C.'s: S. Evans, M. Feaster, E. Glckin, W. Hildebrand, K. Readinger, H. Strand, Privates: M. Allman, J. Barbera, D. Bissett, D. Campbell, D. Casto, D. Clawson, R. Coleman, J. Gracia, M. Hoffman, M. Jones, A. Kozak, C. Long, M. McCormick, L. Mehle, T. Nelson, W. Orton, J. Soutner, C. Warshaw, F. Wildauer, H. Williams, T. Wolfe.

Charlie Company

The other companies have really been watching "C" Company show off. They are tops in intramurals and proved almost unbeatable in parades. With Captain Gleb Moy-saenko, Lieutenants Skip Morris and Bill Amundsen, and 1st Sgt. Tom Phillips at the head of the pack, "C" Company can go a long way.

"Get with your unit!"

Look at that dress!

Company Commander: F. Wullenwaber, Platoon Leaders: S. Huguenin, A. Torbett, First Sergeant: R. Creel, Platoon Sergeants: B. Holstein, W. Page, Staff Sergeants: A. Bell, F. Huron, D. Mastroianni, Sergeants: R. Bounds, T. Hazam, P. Lopez, Corporals: S. Curtin, J. Dager, C. Hanson, M. Jeck, G. Thoss, P.F.C.'s: R. Bunn, A. Colebank, D. Cummins, G. Hook, G. Isgur, J. Kelly, M. Lyons, R. McKenzie, M. Pavkovic, A. Price, M. Rogers, J. Rushton, R. Taylor, Privates: A. Childs, J. Craft, M. Moditch, G. Nehez, V. Onorato, T. Osborne, R. Penniman, M. Vogel, W. Ware, T. Watson.

Delta Company

A busy day on guard for cadets Colebank and Rushton.

Captain Francis Wullenwaber, Lieutenants Allen Torbett and Sid Huguenin, and 1st Sergeant Bob Creel have led "D" Company to Honor Company of the month twice this year. They also show great promise in intramurals and drill competitions.

"D" Company new cadets learn left from right.

Echo Company

"E" Company at drill.

"E" Company is the largest company on the hill and shows its size in many ways. Their high morale serves to raise the morale in other companies. Company officers are Captain Fred Gambke, Lieutenants Joe Kersey and Rick Waller, and 1st Sergeant Mike Bright.

Company Commander: F. Gambke, Platoon Leaders: J. Kersey, R. Waller, First Sergeant: M. Bright, Platoon Sergeants: J. Parser, T. Scheel, Staff Sergeants: S. Hogerton, D. Wolfe, Sergeants: T. Broere, J. Putney, Corporals: S. Hill, K. Kasal, P.F.C.'s: J. Derkits, A. Gossett, M. Hanley, P. Hano, R. Melton, J. Pesquera, C. Reordan, W. Steele, Privates: M. Baum, J. Barrett, W. Beaman, C. Brewer, K. Buller, D. Calzone, R. Chalker, Joe Corne, B. Cram, B. Cullinan, L. Dougherty, R. Elliot, S. Gagnon, M. Goewey, W. Groseclose, R. Klimek, R. Kleinstiver, B. McAurthur, F. Logue, J. McHugh, J. Payette, J. Rusmisell, P. Tambellini, R. Taylor.

Joe Corne prepares for daily room inspection.

Company Commander: M. Meise, Platoon Leaders: G. Jones, J. Weitzel, First Sergeant: K. Simpkins, Sergeants: J. Allen, J. Bounds, J. Pappas, W. Rodosovich, Corporals: K. Burleigh, P.F.C.'s: M. Clay, D. Kimmerle, L. MacDonald, H. Marinus, R. San Filipo, C. Volkwein, S. Yu, Privates: R. Franklin, W. Colegrove, L. Goldner, M. Gracia, F. Gray, S. Hamilton, J. Harrison, K. Lewis, D. McShane, C. Moore, J. Smith, J. Smyly, T. Stephens.

Foxtrot Company

Even though "F" Company is the smallest on the hill and has the youngest boys, nothing stops them from winning parades and placing in squad drill. Captain John Meise, Lieutenants Glen Jones, and John Weitzel, and 1st Sergeant Kirk Simpkins keep the 7th and 8th graders straight.

They're even old enough to carry real rifles!

The Junior School takes a break for lunch.

Headquarters Company

Anyone who says, "Headquarters never works," is wrong. They are responsible for many jobs which the corps takes for granted, such as the armory, infirmary, and training aids. In charge is Captain Mike Godfrey, with Lieutenants Allen Nelson and Mike Pandak, and 1st Sergeant Bill Kearns.

The color guard performs with the Howies and at Sunday parades.

Captain: M. Godfrey, 1st Lts.: A. Nelson, M. Pandak, First Sergeant: W. Kearns, Master Sergeants: J. Midgett, G. Player, S.F.C.'s: H. Broere, C. Dasti, A. Halfin, J. Marinuk, J. Martin, Staff Sergeants: P. Birkhead, E. Edwards, Sergeants: W. Hollingsworth, P.F.C.: G. Henry, Privates: M. Grooms, W. Hanger, J. Miska, C. Ramirez, E. Ringwald, D. Shank, K. Wymer.

Battalion Staff

Erich Kurre, Blue McDonald, Grover Draughon, George Mastroianni, Mark Beveridge.

As the S-1, Captain Erich Kurre acts as the battalion adjutant. His responsibilities include police of the barracks, making guard rosters, and assigning beat squad officers. The S-2 and intelligence officer is Captain Blue McDonald. Quenching rumors and taking care of cadets' military training records are part of his responsibilities. The corps commander is Lieutenant Colonel Grover Draughon. He is in charge of the overall appearance, discipline, and morale of the corps. Captain George Mastroianni is the S-3 and operations officer. He acts as a liaison between the corps commander and the company commanders. He is also in charge of helping plan drill activities. The S-4 and battalion supply officer is Captain Mark Beveridge. His chief duties are the Medical Department, the Armory, and training aids.

Battalion Band

Although the band has only 25 cadets, it brings out more spirit in the corps than ever. They are certainly missed if we do not hear their drums and bugles at football and basketball games.

The band also performs in parades with the Howies.

Not all cadets are lucky enough to be members of this outfit.

Company Commander: R. Freshman, Platoon Leaders: A. Schoenfuuss, First Sergeant: A. Rossy, Platoon Sergeant: W. Smith, Staff Sergeant: J. Lawhorne, Sergeants: P. Fall, T. Hall, R. Matos, Corporals: P. Taylor, D. Tenney, P.F.C.'s: E. Abadi, K. Cain, S. McKee, Privates: R. Cashion, M. Coghlan, W. Harreld, D. Kuhlman, R. Loba, R. Mars, R. Miller, T. Moore, W. Sawdey, W. Tate.

Howie Rifles

General Ramsey and Colonel Richmond review the Howies' honor guard.

The Howie Rifles is a group of forty cadets selected at the beginning of the year. The selection is based on military bearing, conduct, and grades. Recently they have performed in Richmond, Waynesboro, Staunton, and are scheduled for the Apple Blossom Festival in Winchester.

Cadet Chong Vang receives his Howie Rifle certificate from General Ramsey.

"A" Team

The four soloists demonstrate trick drill.

Are You Ready?

"A" Team of the Howie Rifles is composed of eighteen cadets who excel in trick and precision drill. "A" Team has demonstrations at Thanksgiving, Military Weekend, and at the V.M.S.L. drill competition. Their manual of difficult and sometimes dangerous maneuvers has won much praise during the year.

Don't we just love it?

Sacrifice

Fall Sports

Cross Country

This is no ordinary sport. It has been said that cross country requires more stamina than any other sport. There is now tremendous competition in cross country, but that is not the main aspect. There is a special loneliness of a true long distance runner that only the runner can feel. This is held especially true here at S.M.A. because of the spacious open land around the school.

"Lord, Make It a Safe Race, a Good Race, and May The Best Man Win"

This year the Roadrunners posted a 12-8 record and captured the V.M.S.L. championship and the Lynchburg College Invitational. SMA's outstanding runner, Paul Thomson, set the SMA school record and tied Duane Fredrich's record with a 12:04 on the 2.5 mile course. Tommy Moore also set the freshman course record with 13:17.

Cross

Country . . .

It takes a different type to run it . . .

Somewhere inside
there is a reason,

his heart, mind, and body
for himself — alone.

in the least possible time."

"When you cross that finish line, you should be physically exhausted!"

Cross Country? That's what they call it!

Varsity Football

The 1972 football season was an entirely new ballgame at S.M.A. This could be called a "year of changes."

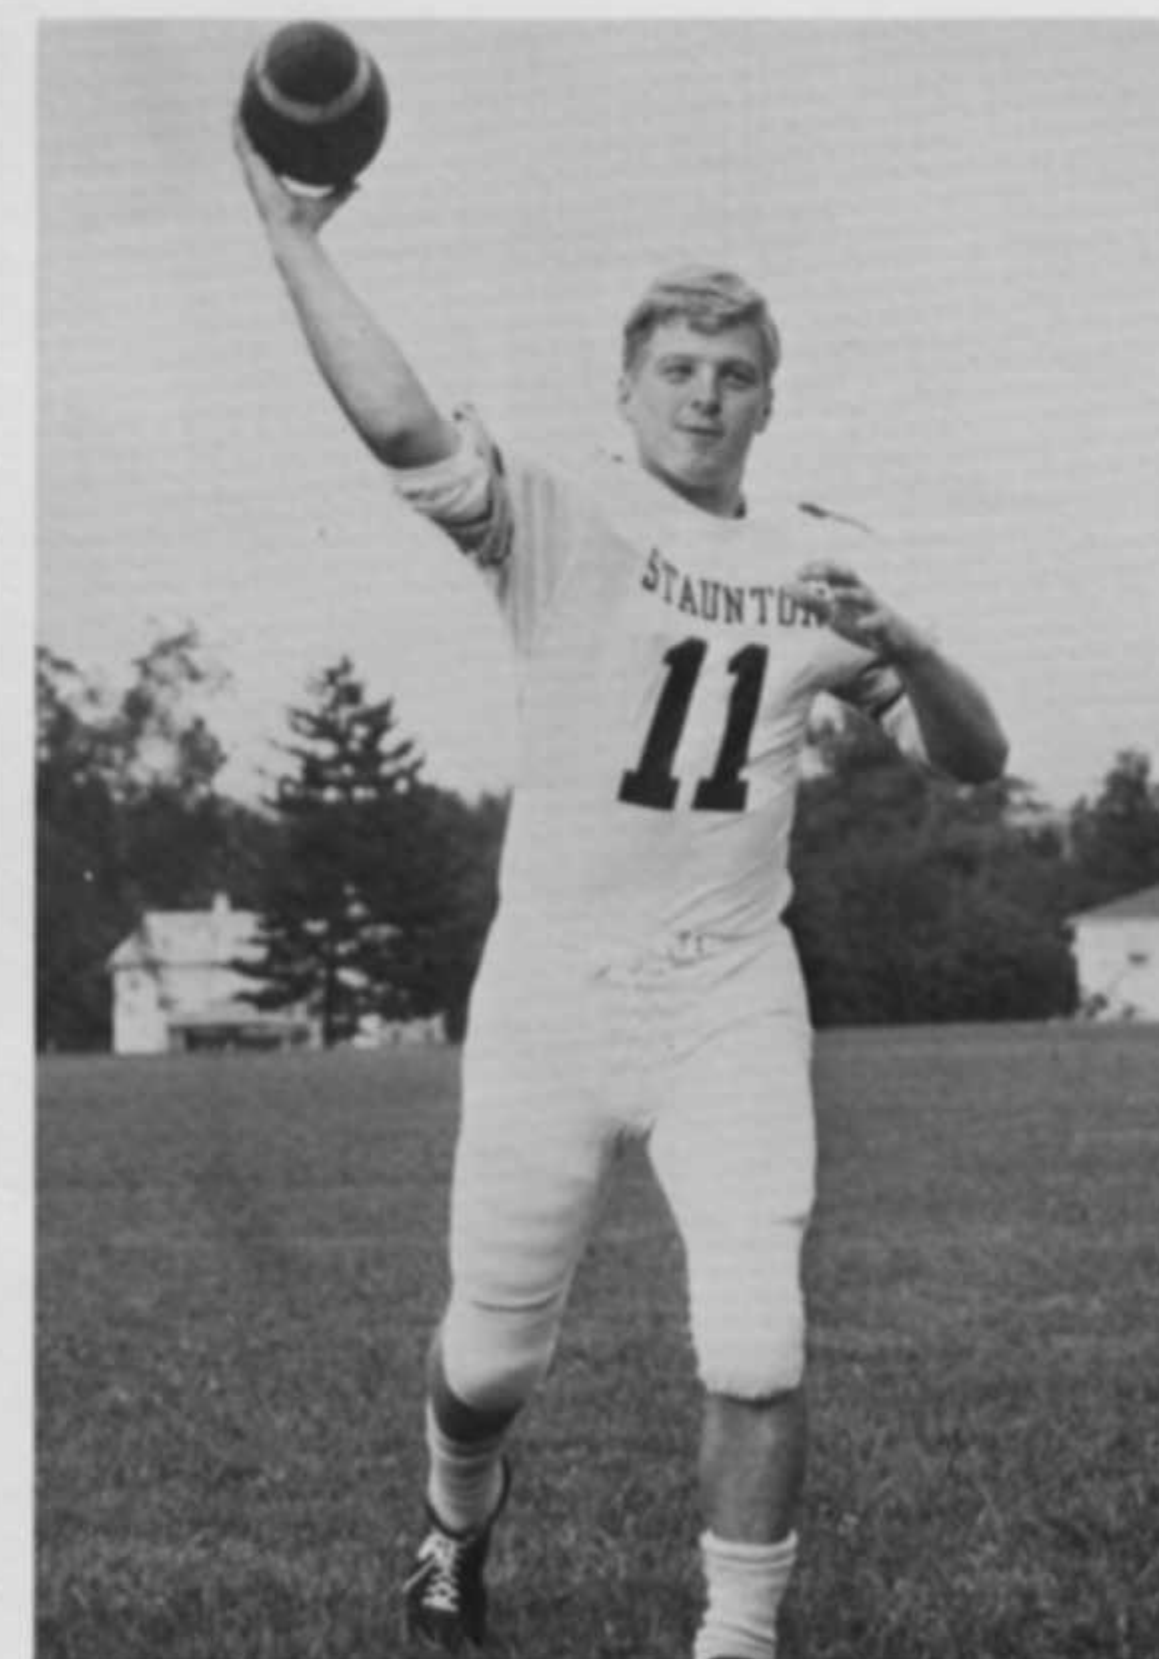

To begin with, there was a drastic change in the lineup of coaches for the team as head coach Tony De Macio left for the Riverheads High School. To replace him came head coach Bill Brooks and assistants Carl Lombel and Wayne Hepler. The season was also hampered by the burning of the West Barracks locker room which destroyed all of the football equipment.

There were many exciting games played this year to add to the change. This was due to the games played on the S.M.A. field, sparking the spirit of the corp on the sidelines. The side of the offense was led by Tony Kozak while the defense was pushed by John Soutner.

Below: Tony Kozak was chosen as outstanding player of the year.

Mike Lyons runs for yardage in the Ferrum Junior College game. Defense stops the running play by Ferrum.

It was a good year for offense as well as defense. The two running backs Jay Brennan and Tim Bicknel both had fabulous yardage this year. Defense was just as effective with players such as Billy Ware, Al Romano, Rich Tuten, and Harry Broere.

What's It All About?

What Goes Into Making A Good Ball Club?

First it takes a group of individuals working as one. Then it takes sacrifice, especially here at S.M.A. Not many ballplayers have to wake up at 6:40 every morning to eat breakfast and march into the dining room. Equally as important is the dedication — on the part of the players, as well as the coaches. Here at S.M.A. we have such qualities as these which, we can say, are invested into the players lives while they are here at the Academy. Yes, he benefits and learns.

Junior Varsity Football

There was something different about this year's J.V. football team — a lot more spirit than usual but more probably that they won a game. After four years, the team finally capitalized on a victory, beating powerful Augusta Military at Augusta.

Under the coaching of Lt. Bosiak, Dee Mastroianni was able to have a beautiful season at quarterback, leading the team on a hard schedule.

Most of the losses were due to the bad breaks and penalties, but most of the scores were very close. The majority of the team felt slighted on the number of scheduled games, but this is something not in control of the coaches.

Left: Skip Morris on a combination play, demonstrates the proper form for stepping on an opponents face.

Winter Sports

Winter sports brought everybody indoors this year. It also brought champions. S.M.A. captured two V.M.S.L. championships this season. New coaches and new forces added to the excitement of the competition. Some say it was the best season yet. The winter sports have added a new dimension to life at the academy.

Rifle Team

The 1972-73 rifle team, under the coaching of Master Sergeant Glen Gibson and Sergeant First Class Bobby Mitchell, repeated their past championships as they captured the first place title in the annual state meet of the Virginia Military Institute. Howard Strand and Dave Tenny battled it out for the high score medal which ended in a draw. However, due to Howard's higher prone score, he received the award. The team's only defeat in the V.M.S.L. season was to Fork Union who was out-classed for the sharpshooters in the state meet.

The S.M.A. rifle team has always been one of the finest on the east coast; their outstanding performances have spread the school heritage far and wide.

Varsity Basketball

"Pandak's Pack," as they are called, had some of the finest talent S.M.A. has seen on its courts for years. Losing only a few games at the first of the season, the Hilltoppers quickly put it all together for a near perfect season. The cagers won the V.M.S.L. seasonal title and are expected to win the championship match in late February.

The top five players consisted of Mike Pandak, Dennis Calzonetti, Brian Cullinan, Dave Shipula, and Bill Hanger. The team also had exceptional depth with such players as Jerry Hook, Bo Gosset, Marty Pavokovic, and Jo Corne, and John Miska.

Marty Pavokovic and Jerry Hook hail from the same state.

J.V. Basketball

The baby Hilltoppers were able to have an outstanding 1973 season under the coaching of Keith Burnett. Having almost a perfect record, the baby cagers fell only to the mighty Fork Union team in the V.M.S.L.

Frank Jarosowiz led the scoring throughout the season averaging 18 points a game. Carlos Iraheta was also an outstanding performer playing his third year on the team.

Varsity Swimming

The beginning of the 1973 swimming season came with a whole new coaching staff. Captain Rolon, the school Spanish teacher, took over the job of head swimming coach for the tankers. His dedicated efforts helped bring the underdogs to a winning season.

The powerful depth of Scott Hogerton's swimming talent and the coming of Steve Orton gave new spark to this year's team. Taking second to powerful Fork Union in the VMSL Championship meet, the tankers were able to take quite a few places and had many outstanding performances.

"It takes a team effort to win — we have that effort . . ."

Captain Rolon's dedicated efforts have inspired the whole swimming team.

Scott Hogerton has proved that he is the most outstanding swimmer on the team.

The team starts off a fast race.

Spring Sports

The Spring brought everything alive again — including the boys here at SMA. After a winter of hibernation, the Hilltoppers captured two Virginia Military School League championships, one in tennis and one in baseball. Both the track team and the golf team pulled in second place honors to round out a fine season of good competition.

Varsity Golf

The '72 golf season came with a "SWISH!!!" as coach Dixon Ward carted his boys to a fine 8-5 record. Mike Bright and Randy Blackburn led the team to a second place in the V.M.S.L., being edged out by the powerful Hargrave team by one stroke. The top five on the team were Mike Bright, Randy Blackburn, Carlos Iraheta, Mike Keziah, and Jeff Smith.

Varsity Track

Track is sometimes called "the sport for everybody" because of the variety of events one may compete in. There were many outstanding individuals in their own events to rack in the points for the team. You could say that the team came out on top in the 1972 season, winning the Augusta County Invitational and producing a winning record of 4-1. The team was grateful to coach Roy "the Ham" Cunningham and George Lowman for their dedication and sacrifice.

Varsity Tennis

"Playing tennis" was quite a word at SMA last spring as the tennis team lit the court up, beating the Fork Union team for the V.M.S.L. Championship. Juniors Tom Bochnak and Mark Beveridge led the team, with John Parser, Joe Steele and Willy Morris rounding out the top five. Tennis, the fastest growing sport in America, is growing exceedingly fast in competition. Due to the fine coaching of Capt. Talbot L. Talbot and the fine talent on the team, the 1972 tennis team did an outstanding job.

Varsity Baseball

The 1972 baseball team continued to hold the VMSL title by exterminating the Fork Union team in the play-offs. Under the coaching of "Z" Zerrilla and Tony DeMacio, the team was able to have a near perfect season.

Dee Mastroianni was known for his home runs when the team found themselves in pinches. Robin Parilla's pitching and Hunter Crosby's catching proved to be the winning combination in most of the games.

The Cotillion Club is the heart of all large social functions at S.M.A. The club is a representation of the cadets by select officers.

Through the Cotillion Club the students have been given the control of dances and other social functions under the supervision of CPT Boyd.

. . . And Functions

Senior Ring Figure

Military Ball

Final Ball

In the actual planning of the dances, the Cotillion Club did it's best for the Class of 1973 to make this one of the most enjoyable years spent on the hill.

President Gleb Moysaenko worked hard to beat the system and have some good dances. Even though he did not always succeed, his hard work and dedication to the seniors will be remembered as a gallant try.

The Senior Class owes many thanks to these officers for their time put into the senior affairs. Best of luck to the future Cotillion Clubs.

Mike Godfrey and date are having second thoughts about the Ring Figure as time grows closer.

The seniors are lined up and ready to get it over with.

Practice makes perfect for times to come, right Mark?

Gus Suarez finally receives his long awaited senior ring.

Ray Fleshman, decked out in medals and spit shines with the colonel's daughter chalks up a few more points.

Allen Torbett and Joe Kersey have a last laugh before they give their senior rings away.

The End of Your Freedom.

The Violence of an Army.

Which will you be in later life, the beginning or the end? The one who opens a new field, or the one who ends the old field. Peacefulness or violence? The one who talks softly, or the one who carries a big stick.

Which will you be, fellow cadets? The one who builds for the future or the one who destroys in a day, what it took a year to build.

Kable Gram

The Kablegram, again this year, has kept the cadets well-informed on the happenings of SMA. The humor of Fred Gambke, brains of Mark Beveridge, and advice of CPT Neilson have made this year's newspaper one of the best which has been read on the hill.

Editors: T. Phillips, M. Godfrey, P. Thomson, W. Hildebrand, F. Gambke, S. Crane, G. Moysaenko, Editor-in-Chief: M. Beveridge.

M. Godfrey, J. Kersey, M. Orr, P. Thomson, F. Gambke, M. Beveridge, G. Player, G. Thoss, W. Amundsen, J. Marinus, R. Winning, W. Kearns, C. Iraheta, W. Hildebrand, J. Midgett, P. Birkhead, C. Dastl, E. Kurre, G. Moysaenko, G. Jones, F. Wullenwaber, J. Finke, E. Ehmann, B. Thomas, S. Crane.

Blue & Gold

The Blue and Gold serves as a lasting reminder of friendship to all those who have endured the challenge of a year or more on the hill. This yearbook is the memory of those friendships and times that the cadets will remember the rest of their lives. In honor of them, we write this, the 1973 Blue and Gold.

The man who makes it happen, CPT Barclay.

Singing Cadets

SMA's sole representation of the performing arts, The Singing Cadets, has offered us and the surrounding area another fine year of musical enjoyment. This year the club's members will not only have gained the benefits that naturally stem from musical activity but will also receive academic credit.

This year, as in years past, The Singing Cadets offered its members many good and memorable times. Throughout the course of the year, the group will have the pleasure of singing with the girls from Stuart Hall and Fairfax Hall. The cadets will also sing with various church choirs in the valley.

CPT Boyd not only readily recognizes the quality of performed music but also functions as conductor and organizer for the choir.

The Singing Cadets owe an immeasurable amount of thanks to Mr. George Sargent. He has assisted them in every way. SMA would also like to thank the accompanist, Maxine Mathews, for her guidance and Christmas chocolates.

Senior Class Officers

Treasurer: Blue McDonald; Secretary: Paul Thomson; Vice President: Fred Gambke; President: Mark Beveridge; Advisor: MAJ Vames.

This year, as in years past, the Senior Class Officers were elected by the graduating class. Headed by Mark Beveridge and advised by MAJ Vames, the officers can and will have accomplished much by May 27.

We, the editors of the Blue and Gold, would like to express our thanks to Blue, Paul, Fred, Mark, and MAJ Vames for their dedication, hard work, and time given to the Class of 1973.

George Mastrianni is amused at the thought of Bill Kearns getting the corps.

It's nice to have the old parking spot back again.

Sincerely yours, Der Leader Bones.

New signs have sprung up all over Staunton directing people to S.M.A.

Midyear cadets are cadets who have entered after the first semester. What is equal to an entire year of drill is taught to the midyears in three weeks. The advantage they have over other cadets is they finish a year of military training in half a year.

So the seniors of "72" bade farewell to the Blue&Gold. Leaving behind them many fond memories and many not-so-fond memories of their years spent on the Hill. As these seniors left Weiland Gate for their last time, probably the most repeated phrase was . . .

Good Bye, SMA!

In conclusion, let it be said that the ideals of the senior class have been set down in this book. All phases of life at old SMA, whether serious or humorous, have been portrayed to the best of our ability throughout its pages. To anyone who feels that he has been slighted or his abilities have not been fully recognized, we here state that it was not the intention of the staff to do injustice to anyone. We have tried to give you a book that you will treasure at present and in years to come.
