On the Gridiron

S. M. A., 12—W. & L. 0

Our first game was played on our home grounds with Washington & Lee second team. There was quite a lot of fumbling by the S. M. A. team and we were also penalized a number of times for being off side, but Coach Legge hopes to overcome these faults by constant practice in the next few days.

The game started by W. & L. kicking off to La Marche. The ball was forced up the field by the terrific line plunges by Rosenberger, La Marche and Smith, Rosengerger finally carried the ball over the line for the first touch down of the year. Scott kicked the goal.

In the second quarter W. & L. held S. M. A. much better than in the first. Matsen punted to Bagley of W. & L. who carried the ball back of his own goal line, and was downed there by Smith. This safety counted two more points for S. M. A., making the total nine.

In the last quarter Scott kicked a beautiful field goal making S. M. A.'s total 12.

Military Items

On October the 3rd, Captain J. S. Baynard Schindel, Chairman of the Inspection Board of the Army War College was here at S. M. A., and after making a thorough inspection of the different departments announced himself very well pleased.

Following his report to the General Staff Quarters in Washington Colonel L. D. Greene, who has lately been serving as Chief of the Staff of the Illinois National Guard was detailed here and arrived.

A more modern equipment of arms and an equipment for a battery of artillery is expected to arrive very soon.

The military life of the school will be on a much higher plane than it has ever been before and it is hoped that in a few years we may on the "distinguished list."

Although handicapped by the lateness of the instruments in arriving from Philadelphia where they had been sent to be repaired the band this year is much better

Election of Officers

On Sunday night the election of officers for the School Y. M. C. A. was held in the large Study Hall. Much spirit and interest was demonstrated. Of the nine suitable cadets whose names were advanced to fill the offices made vacant by the retiring officers of last year. Those chosen by the two hundred and twenty members of the Y. M. C. A. to fill these offices were:

Cadet H. W. Clark, President; Cadet Chester Laurer, Vice-President; Cadet R. W. Aldrich, Secretary.

These three men were chosen by a large majority. The others running for office were Cadets Wiley and Wear for President; Cadets Morrell and Strong for Vice-President; Cadets Camp and Hager for Secretary and Treasurer.

M. A. supply room bank, we the board of editors have decided to submit to the public an occasional financial column and our books are open to any subscriber who may wish to investigate.

Jefferson Loses

Our old rival, Jefferson, was slaughtered here on October 13th by the score of 38 to 0. The "Big Red Horses," as the Jefferson team is called by its followers, could not hold against the terrific line plunges of S. M. A. backs. Our line held like a stone wall against the onslaught of Jefferson. The entire S. M. A. team played good ball with Rosenberger, Laurer, Matsen, LaMarche and Smith, P., starring.

In the fourth quarter Couch Legge called the varsity off the field and put the entire scrub team in the game. The scrubs soon scored a touchdown on the "Big Red Horses."

Massanutten Easy

What started out to be a close game ended up in an easy victory for S. M. A., final score being 46 to 0. S. M. A. worked the forward pass great. This was a big factor toward our large score. Matsen taking Rosenberger's passes like Jenkins, our last year star, used to do. The whole S. M. A. team put up a great exhibition of football. Crickenberger starred for Massanutten.

S. M. A. kicked off to Massanutten, Massanutten fumbled and Scott recovered the pigskin for S. M. A.; S. M. A. was now held for downs. Massanutten could not gain any ground so they punted. Our boys soon made their first touchdown; Rosenberger carried the ball over. Scott kicked the goal.

In the second quarter Rosenberger carried the ball over for his second touchdown. Scott failed to kick the goal. Smith soon followed it up with another touchdown. Scott kicked the goal, LaMarche also made a touchdown in this quarter, no goal was kicked as Matsen made a poor punt out.

In the third quarter Rosenberger again carried the ball over, Scott kicked the goal, Rosenberger made a forward pass to Matsen who went over for another touchdown. Scott failed to kick the goal.

In the fourth quarter Rosenberger made another pass to Matsen who went over for another touchdown. Scott kicked the goal.

The game ended with the ball on Massanutten's half yard line.

The lineup:

S. M. A.: Matsen, l. e.; Laurer, l. t.; Brenham, l. g., Scott, c.; Kendall, r. g.; McGowan, t.; May, r. e.; Aldrich, q.; LaMarche, r. h.; Rosenberger l. h.; Smith, p. f.

In the third quarter S. M. A. fumbled and Kivlighan for S. H. S. grabbed the ball and ran seventy yards for a touchdown, he also kicked his own goal. In this quarter VanSikle recovered a fumble for S. M. A. and made a touchdown. Barteldes kicked a goal. Deardorf showed up well during the game. Wadsworth showed up well with his forward passes.

Social

The social season on the hill opened very auspiciously as usual with an informal dance on Saturday night, September 27th.

Too much credit cannot be given to Cadets Bryant and Hornor for the way in which they handled the work of getting the dance up. As usual, it is a little difficult to start things as far as the "rats" are concerned, but the affair was a success in every sense of the word for the first dance of the season.

A departure was made from the usual run of orchestras, and a colored orchestra of six pieces dispensed music which made it very difficult for any one to refrain from "Ragging," but, as this kind of dancnig was absolutely barred, of course, there were no violations of the "Dance Regulation."

A very delicious fruit punch was served to those who attended. Among those present were: The Misses Laura Ward Wise, Helen Moore, Helen Holliday, Vira Harmon, Eleanor Curry, Lena Floyd, Margaret Enslow, Mary Sue Bowman, Helen Prise, of New York, Annie Harman, Lucy Rhea, of New Orleans, Constance Curry, Mary Bell, Diddy Bell, Mary Stuart Robertson and Elsie Horris.

Cadets: Bryant, Hornor, LaMarche, Camp Strong, Nigh, O'Reardon, Brenham, Aldrich, S., Milligan, Fulton, Ballou, Lions, G., Smith, P., Mason, Herndon, Cantrill, Van Den Burg, and Matson.

Among the faculty present, were: Captains McCue, Legge, Pitcher, Col. Russell and Lt. Boykin.

Those chaperoning were: Maj. and Mrs. Sizer, Mrs. Kable, Maj. and Mrs. Sutherland and Capt. and Mrs. King.

The home of Professor and Mrs. Beardsworth, on Main Street was the source of much pleasure to the following cadets whom they entertained: Jones, S., O'Reardon, Griffith, Friend and Crance.

Cadet Burleigh was a guest of Maj. and Mrs. Ragan, at their home on Sherwood Avenue, Sunday the 12th.

Cadet Eldridge was a guest at the Calarama for dinner on Sunday the 12th of October.

Cadet Nigh was the guest of Maj. and Mrs. Ragan at their home on Sherwood Avenue for Sunday dinner on the 5th of October.

The Corps is expecting and anxiously looking forward to a second informal dance which is to be given prior to our annual Thanksgiving Hop. Nothing elaborate is to be expected, but we entertain hopes for an enjoyable evening.

The Chocolate Soldier Presented

On Saturday, Oct. 25th, the Corps was delighted by Lieut. Col. Russell's announcement that all cadets having under ten hour's beat could attend the production of the Chocolate Soldier.

The production was presented by the Whitney Opera Company in a most delightful fashion and was enjoyed by a large crowd of cadets. All the parts were elegantly played and the players were enched numerous times.

Erkenbrack: Vietts, going to the Mammoth Sale down town?

Vietts: What in H—— would I do with a Mammoth?

Ted (Looking at recruit Co.): Not a very handsome crowd.

LaMarche: Beauty's only skin deep Col.

Ted: This bunch looks as if it had been skinned several times.

Robinson: Gee, I only got one collar back from the laundry and I sent six.

De Laurel: Did you put your name on them?

Robinson: I put my name on one and wrote ditto on the rest.

Editorial

The Editorial Staff wish to extend their sincere appreciation to the corps for the way in which they have taken hold of this paper, by the number of subscriptions. We hope there will be many more new subscriptions on our list within the next few weeks. We wish to make this one of the spiciest papers of any school, and to do this, we must have the hearty co-operation of every cadet in the school. Let all of us remember that this paper is for the best interest of the corps as a whole and not an interest of any one group of individuals. So let every cadet in school give his best efforts and support to help make this a paper we shall be proud of.

THE BULLETIN BOARD will be glad to receive short stories and other articles written by any member of the corps. A cadet who feels he can write, please do not hesitate to do so. All communications for the paper will be put in the box made for same in the large study hall. The Editorial Staff reserves the right to reject any and all articles they deem unfit for publication.

"Lest we forget," one good turn deserves another. We, the Editorial Staff do hereby recommend that every cadet in school patronize the firms whose names occur in THE BULLETIN BOARD, for they have helped to make possible the paper by kindly assistance in advertising. In these firms herein advertised we furnish the corps a directory of the best and most reliable firms in town.

THE BULLETIN BOARD, representative of the Cadet Corps, in this first issue of our paper, wish to extend a very hearty welcome to the new addition to our faculty, Col. L. D. Greene, of the United States army, who has been detailed to this post.

than it has been at this time in any preceding year. The time spent with the new men is reduced to a minimum as eighteen old men are back and no new men that had not at least a little knowledge of band work was admitted. After only three hours practice Professor Beardsworth and Acting Captain Jones had their men ready to play at retreat and they are now playing several hard pieces.

The following is a list of cadets that acted as officers and non-commissioned officers until appointments.

Staff: Lieutenant and Adjutant, Selts, W.; Lieutenant and Quartermaster, Scott, R.; Sergeant Major, Chilton; Quartermaster Sergeant, Hager; Hospital Sergeant, Fulton.

"A" Company: Captain, Burleigh; Lieutenants, Matson, Nigh and Laurer; First Sergeant, Camp, Sergeants, Copeland, Schambs, Erkenbrack and Briggs; Corporals, Murray, J., McCullough, H., Vietts, L., Miller, H., Walcott, Lynch, Hintze, Shepherd, C., and Schobe; Buglar, Cant.

"B" Company: Captain, LaMarche; Lieutenants, Clark, H., and Wiley, First Sergeant, Morrell; Sergeants, George, H., and Lewis, W.; Corporals, Brenham, Johnson, C., Lott, Cantrill and Martin.

"C" Company: Captain, Matsen; Lieutenants, Vietts, S., and Kendall; First Sergeant, Gibson; Sergeants, Harwell, O'Reardon, Mangus; Corporals, Ranshaw, Schrock, Wingate, Lyong, Mary, Nurdlinger; Buglar, Johnson.

"D" Company, Captain, Aldrich; Lieutenant, Hornor; First Sergeant, Clough; Sergeants, Smith, P., DeLaureal and Dils, J., Corporals, Ballou Boagni, Colburn, Mc-Leod, Robertson, A., and Roan, I.; Buglar, Lomo, J.

Band: Captain, Jones, S.; Lieutenant, Strong; First Sergeant, Adams B.; Sergeant, Overlook, Snow and Jones, W.

"E" Company: Battle, J.; Lieutenant, Fentress; First Sergeant, Barnes, W.; Sergeants, Thom, Patterson, Mejia.

Under Instructor Selts and his assistant McCullough, flag signaling has started in earnest. Selts has taken several squads from "A" Company and under his able instructions the men are learning to send and receive messages at a rapid rate.

The Rat companies are so well drilled this year, that it is very hard to choose one recruit company that excels the other in the art. Major Ragan has been giving them a little taste of the battalion drill that has made him famous. Even among themselves it is hoped that they will soon have their guns.

Miscellany

One of the scout laws is to be helpful. A scout must do one good term to some one every day. This much has been done already.

Sammy Pitcher, crossing the B. & O. bridge, saw an old man's hat blow off in front of an auto. Running in front of the machine, Sam pitched the hat off the bridge, saving it from being crushed beneath the wheels.

Perry Ragan noticed a negro standing on third story ledge of a building washing windows, and called to him to look out. The lad turned and fell and broke his leg. Had he not been warned, he would have undoubtedly broken his neck.

Ted Russell noticed a grocery horse standing beside a cart sweating freely. He unhitched the animal, led it home and gave it a cool witch hazel sponge bath followed by a good meal of mashed potatoes. The owner may get the horse by applying to Room 300.

HARVARD LAMPOON.

Bryant and Brenham boarding a car, Bryant hands conductor a nickle. Conductor to Brenham: You will have to pay too.

Bryant: He is only five years old.

Conductor: He looks mighty old for that.

Bryant: He has always worried a lot.

which was the cause of a slow contest being played.

S. M. A. kicked off Greenbrier could not gain so they punted. Smith received for S. M. A. and went twenty yards before being downed. S. M. A. worked a series of line plunges, Matsen finally going over for a touchdown. Scott failed to kick the goal. In this quarter Peters, for Greenbrier intercepted a forward pass and ran for a touchdown. Russell failed to kick the goal. Score, S. M. A. 6, Greenbrier 6.

The linemen could not charge hard because there was no sure footing in the mud. When the linemen did open a hole the backfield would slip and fall. In the second half both teams were slowly but surely becoming tired out. The contest though slow was full of spirit. In the second quarter Matson broke his shoulder.

Scrubs Won

The scrubs wolloped the Staunton High School by the score of 25 to 0. Freeman starred for the scrubs making a seventy-yard run for a touchdown.

The scrubs had the school boys at their mercy throughout the game. Lyon the scrub left-end broke his collar bone in the last half.

Cheering

The cheering at the games this year is much better than in preceding years. No one, except the players, imagine how much spirit is put in the team by cheering. So fellows keep the good work up.

She Stoops to Conquer

The famous actress Annie Russell Russell and her own company presented the play in a most enjoyable fashion. Annie Russell as their heroine. She was supported by able casts and all the parts were carried out excellently.

The Bachelor's Baby

On October 8th, The Bachelor's Baby was offered at the Beverly Theatre and the cadets were allowed to attend.

Both the costumes and the acting were poor and the play did not take with the cadets.

The Trail of the Lonesome Pine

On Thursday, October 16th, The Trail of the Lonesome Pine was very well put on at the New Theatre. The cast was good and quite a number of cadets enjoyed the afternoon spent in the theatrical Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia.

The boy scout movement is such a success elsewhere, why not have a Staunton troop?
