

Maj. T. Beardsworth, Member Of Faculty For 33 Years, Dies

Headed Music Department And Organized First Band At S. M. A.

Major Thomas Beardsworth, sixty-three, for thirty-three years head of the music department and director of the band at Staunton Military Academy, died early Saturday morning at his residence on East Beverley Street. He had been in poor health for eighteen months, and Friday morning at seven o'clock had a stroke of paralysis from which he never rallied.

Major Beardsworth was born in Blackpool, England; received his early education in private schools there, and came to the United States when twelve years old. He attended Juilliard School of Music in New York City. As a youth his ambition was to be a musician—and this ambition was brilliantly realized. As a young man he taught stringed instruments in Winchester for five years.

In 1900 Major Beardsworth came to Staunton, which had since been his home. He became head of the music department at the Virginia School for the Deaf and Blind that year, and continued in that capacity for twenty-one years. In 1907 he organized the first band at Staunton Military Academy and was head of the music department and director of the band on "The Hill" for thirty-three years. His teaching abilities also were employed at Mary Baldwin at one time, and he had directed various church choirs here.

His connection with the Stonewall Brigade band was first as assistant director, and then for many years as director. In addition to stringed instruments, Major Beardsworth was proficient in practically all band instruments, and gave instructions in all of them. Because he knew music and musical instruments thoroughly, he was able to impart that knowledge to others, and his cadet bands at S. M. A. and his students generally made rapid progress.

At the military academy he also was prominent and very talented in directing school plays and minstrels. For many years he presented one principal entertainment program annually, embracing music and comedy. The townsfolk were privileged to attend these plays and minstrels, and always they were highlights of the school year.

For seven years Major Beardsworth was bandmaster of the old First Virginia regimental band. He was fond of amateur photography and a collector of stamps. He was a member of all Masonic bodies, and of the Shrine; also a Rotarian. He held membership in the band of Acca Shrine Temple.

Major Beardsworth was a man of kindly, gentle disposition who won the hearts of people, young and old. He is survived only by his wife, who was Miss J. Ada Bantz, of Winchester. Their life together had been quiet and devoted; their home a place of hospitality and congeniality.

Bespeaking the high esteem in which Major Beardsworth was held on "The Hill," this past Christmas he was presented a handsome portrait, the work of a prominent Philadelphia artist, depicting him as he was about fifteen years ago as bandmaster at S. M. A. A group of alumni of the school, headed by Captain Kable Russell, had the portrait painted and made the presentation to Major Beardsworth. Most of the alumni group

Cornell Offers Scholarships To Secondary School Seniors

An increase in the number of John McMullen Regional Scholarships in Engineering to be awarded by Cornell University to secondary school seniors during the spring of 1941 has been announced by Dean S. C. Hollister of the College of Engineering. An additional appropriation for scholarships has been made by the Board of Trustees, and more than the usual 30 awards will be made in the 15 districts which cover the entire United States except New York state.

John McMullen Scholarships now carry variable stipends up to $400 a year throughout the four or five-year course in the College of Engineering. Awards are based on character and general ability as well as on academic distinction. Application blanks have been distributed to high school principals, and may be obtained either from them or from the Dean of the College in Ithaca. All applications must be filed in the Dean's office by April 1.

Fields of study open to students in the College include mechanical, civil, electrical, and chemical engineering, and administrative engineering in mechanical, civil, or electrical engineering.

Windle And Wells Are Co-Editors Of Shrapnel

Saturday night a meeting of the Shrapnel staff was held for the purpose of electing officers. Balloting by popular votes was the system used for choosing the officers.

The co-editors in chief are: Windle and Wells. These men were both associate editors last year, and both will graduate in June. This will be the second year on the staff for Windle and the fourth year for Wells.

The co-assistant editors are: Pressley and Ballentine. Each is on the staff for the first year, and they have done a great deal of excellent work. Ballentine is a Junior and Pressley is a Senior.

Cadet Hume was elected Business Manager, after proving himself valuable in getting advertisements, for the book. This is his second year on the staff and he is also a Senior.

Three associate editors elected by the staff are as follows: Jewett, Barker and Howell. A. D. Howell and Jewett are on the staff for the first time, while Barker is a second year man.

A photography editor will be chosen later, but he will probably be from the present staff of officers above.

Rifle Team To Washington For U. S. Marine Corps Match

The sharpshooters from Staunton Military Academy will journey to Washington, D. C. today after noon mess to compete in the annual United States Marine Corps rifle match. The contest is open to all college, prep, and high school marksmen in the Third Corps Area.

Mid-Winter Formal Military Ball Will Take Place Tonight

Freddy Johnson And His Orchestra Will Play For The Dance

Tonight the Cotillion Club and its faculty advisor, Lieutenant Clark, are presenting the February Formal Military Ball in the Memorial Hall gymnasium. Dance music will be played by Freddy Johnson and his orchestra, from ninety-three to one-hundred.

Having just completed a highly successful circuit of Southern colleges and universities, not to mention a series of broadcasts over the Mutual Network system, Freddy Johnson comes to SMA with a well-trained band of fifteen pieces. The Cotillion Club members, some of the Cadet Officers, and their dates will take part in a military figure to be given during the course of the evening. Receiving the cadets and their guests will be Colonel and Mrs. E. J. Middour, Colonel and Mrs. W. B. Tuttle, and Major and Mrs. J. W. Pence.

Cadets Hear Classical Recordings Each Week

Cadets are meeting each Wednesday in one of the music studios for a classical recording hour. All cadets wishing to hear that type of music may attend.

Last week several cadets enjoyed Symphony V by Beethoven. This week was heard Schubert's Unfinished Symphony. Next week several songs sung by Lawrence Tibbett will be presented.

Requests for classical music to be heard should be made several days in advance to Lt. Tharp. Records of outstanding singers and symphony orchestras will be played. Cadets who are in possession of classical records and would like to hear them played may share them with cadets in the Classical Recording Hour. The library of the school is limited and cadets who are willing to have their classical records played will be appreciated by the other cadets.

Announcements of the recordings to be played will be posted on the bulletin board outside of the Alumni office, a day in advance.

Junior School Athletes Make Trip Next Week

The Junior School Basketball and swimming team will take to the road next Thursday when they meet Massanutten in a return contest at Woodstock, Virginia. The basketball team, coached by Lieutenant Clark, and the swimmers by Lieutenant Onesty, are undefeated this season, and they have a two-year record of ten wins in basketball and six in swimming, against no defeats.

S.M.A. Will Be Represented At Annual Meeting Of Military Schools and Colleges

The annual meeting of the Association of Military Schools and Colleges of the United States will be at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D. C., on March 24, 25 and 26. Staunton Military Academy has been a life-long member of this Association. Members of the school, including the late Colonel T. H. Russell, Major Roy W. Wanson, and the present Superintendent, Colonel Emory J. Middour, have served on different committees of the Association and taken part in the yearly programs. Colonel T. H. Russell, a former Superintendent of Staunton Military Academy, served as president of this organization.

Representatives of Staunton Military Academy will attend this year's meeting of the Association and continue its vital interest in an organization planned in the interest of the work being done by military schools and colleges.

Hydrogen Filled Balloons Travel Almost 200 Miles

On February seventh, during the course of a hydrogen experiment in the SMA chemical laboratory, Major Brown, the instructor, and Cadet Borden, one of his pupils, hit upon the scheme of sending into the heavens two hydrogen-filled balloons, which were to be tied together and were to carry with them a message written on note paper. This message requested of anyone that might find the balloons when they came to earth to write to Cadet Borden's amateur radio station here at S.M.A.—Station W3JDA—and give the particulars as to when, where, and by whom the balloons were discovered. The lighter-than-air bags were released at approximately 12:30 noon, and within a few minutes a strong headwind blowing from the Southwest, had carried them out of sight.

The response to the message was interesting. Nine-year-old Russell Claybough, of Thurmont, Maryland, found the balloons on his way home from school that same afternoon. Those two little hydrogen-filled toy balloons had travelled, before the diffusion of the gas, almost 200 miles.

A package containing the deflated balloons and a brief letter from Russell Claybough arrived in Staunton on the 9th. Major Brown and Cadet Borden, as well as the other students of Chemistry, wish to thank Russell for his efforts in their behalf.

It is in itself interesting that those two tiny rubber toys came down in a spot where they were at once found; and just as interesting is the fact that the balloons, as near as could be determined, are perfectly intact, being punctured or torn in no way.

Quadrangular Meet To Climax Swimming Schedule For 1941

Augusta, Randolph-Macon, Fishburne And Staunton Will Compete In S. M. A. Pool

Tomorrow night at the Kable Memorial Swimming Pool the varsity swimmers will be hosts to Augusta Military Academy, Randolph-Macon Academy, and Fishburne Military School, in a quadrangular swimming meet that promises to be one of the best programs ever attempted for the varsity swimmers.

With some of the best prep school swimmers in the country participating in various events the spectators will have a pleasant evening's entertainment.

There will be a large team trophy presented to the school obtaining the highest number of points. In addition to the team award, medals will be given for those swimmers winning a first, second or third place in an event, and medals to the members of winning relay teams.

Tomorrow also marks the last appearance of the following varsity swimmers who will be wearing the colors of Staunton Military Academy for the last time: Capt. George Tullidge, Jack Pressley, Allen Beloff, John Butner, Bob Steele, Ed Eager, George Offerman, and Frank Seigle. Coach Onesty will have a tough time replacing eight such capable swimmers.

Class Is Started For Cadets Interested In Getting In Band

Instruction for those cadets not in the band is now available. Any cadet wishing free group instruction on any band instrument may now enter this instruction class. This group meets on Mondays and Thursdays during the recreation period after drill.

There are many cadets who need remedial instruction in order to join the band. The band needs increased membership. A number of band instruments are not in use now and some of them are the trombones, mellophones, and basses. Lt. Tharp will give help on any of the band instruments.

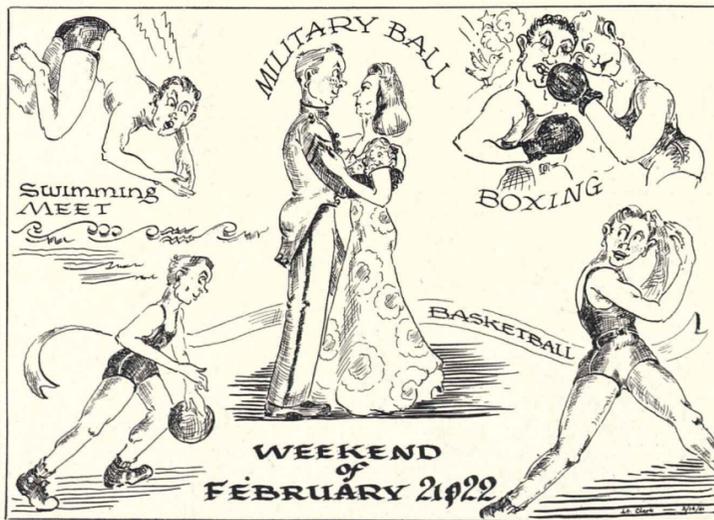

If enough cadets are interested in this, and the progress and instrumentation of the band is sufficient, the band will compete in the Winchester Apple Blossom Festival in late spring, it has been announced.

Mrs. Peter Fick Dies; Mother Of Cadet Griffith

Mrs. Peter J. Fick, mother of Cadet Charles Griffith, died on Saturday morning, February 15. Thousands of housewives knew Mrs. Fick as "Marge." She was the younger of a mother and daughter radio team whose tales of woe of a theatrical family had been on the air continuously since 1931. In real life "Marge" was Mrs. Peter J. Fick, wife of our Olympic champion swimmer, Peter Fick. Older cadets of the school will remember Peter Fick's outstanding record here at Staunton in swimming. He broke all records here in the school, made the Olympic team, toured many countries in Europe and Asia, and perhaps holds as many swimming records as any one of the ten most famous swimmers.

Cadet Griffith's mother was known professionally as Donna Damerl. She was born in Chicago and only seventeen years separated her from her mother in age; she and her mother being known to thousands of radio listeners during the past ten years as "Myrt and Marge." Her son Charles is one of the youngest cadets in the Junior Company. The KABLEGRAM joins many of Charles' young friends in expressing sincere sympathy to him. The many friends of Peter Fick sympathize and regret his great loss in the passing of Mrs. Fick.

"Prof" Beardsworth

Staunton men will learn with sincere regret of the death of Major Beardsworth. Major Beardsworth was known affectionately as "Prof" to thousands of cadets and many faculty officers. During his thirty years of association with Staunton Military Academy he served the school and cadets in a way that heightened and strengthened all Staunton Military Academy does for young men. His personality won love and respect. His good discipline both in the band and in the corps was the result of love and respect. The portrait recently presented to "Prof" Beardsworth by former members of his many Staunton Military Academy bands indicates something of the affection and love for a great teacher. Although "Prof" Beardsworth has not been actively associated with the school in recent years because of ill health, his influence for good has been felt and will live on for many years in the future. He made a great contribution to Staunton Military Academy. His service can be measured only in terms of devotion, helpfulness, kindly interest in cadets, ability in music and above all by his example of Christian manhood. He will be greatly missed by all of his Staunton Military Academy friends and colleagues but the influence of his work and life will live in the future of our school.

SENIORS ON REVIEW

Meet the walking dictionary, folks. ANDREWS is the name—the scholar personified. That's him, the proud possessor of an infinite number of academic honors and the record of being the only kaydet to write a theme over furlough. Horrible thought, isn't it?

BALDRIDGE, however, presents something in a lighter vein. He of the hair comb, radios, and Vulture Club is our nominee for champ ideologist. Eternally dreaming of the little house with the white fence, he has shown great wisdom (up until recently) in the frequent repetition of a war chant involving the downfall of mankind.

Our next object of examination answers to the name of BARTHOLOMEW. Wandering about the highways and byways of the campus for nigh on two years, Bart has been noted for two things—feet and second bases. It will be a historical moment indeed, when a camera can be found that can make a photographic record of his dogs.

A swimmer of the first water, Ace BELOFF has, after two years of arduous labor in the King's M. S. classes, gained at long last the rank of a lesser live in the estimation of that venerable sir. A firm believer in going through the woods, Ace has made quite a mark in minds of all the Bench Warmers of M. S. III and IV.

And here we pause in deep reverence. This lad is the gent who never serves time himself (I wonder why) and who, although he has yet to be initiated into the rites of the Club, wears with unconcealed pride, a Vulture, a red vulture at that. You all know him. BOGUE, Warden, Keeper of the Jailhouse, and Dispenser of Balls and Chains. His motto for his victims—"Stay awhile, that we may make the end the sooner."

Here's the one man around here who seems to do some work on extra-curricular activities, EE HUME. Instigator of riots among the KABLEGRAM staff, he has accomplished the creation of a little conscience in the minds of the Editors-in-Chief about their lack of industry. Hume is quite a lover. He seems, outwardly, to be very worried about the arrival today of some mountain butterfly from Kentucky. Great people, these folks from South.

This And That In Sports On The Hill

That was a hectic battle in the large gym last week when the Varsity "Cry Babies" tried in vain to subdue the younger members of the faculty basketball team. Final score 53 to 52 by virtue of a little underhanded time keeping on the part of some sympathetic cadets, or were they doing a bit of bush beating for better marks in English, History, or what have you.

The Junior School swimmers proved they could keep pace with the varsity swimmers last Saturday when they broke two JD swim records. Dick Weir, "Pappy" Yocum, and Capt. Jimmy Duffy lowered their 75 yard medley marks 53.8 sec. to :50.1. To help things along the "Pee Wee's" shaded their mark of 1:10.1 to 1:09.1 for the 100 yard freestyle relay.

After a nip and tuck affair at Augusta Military Academy last Tuesday the Dolphins from Kable Memorial pool drifted to an easy victory over the Tome School from Maryland. "Legs" Butler and his teammate, "Ace" Beloff turned in their best performance of the season when they matched strokes to a close finish in the 50 yard freestyle in the excellent time of 24.8 seconds.

Sensational shooting, excellent passing, and superb team work was the cause of Blackstone Military Academy's first defeat at the hands of the Blue and Gold dribblers. Never before has a team from Staunton dropped the sphere through the hoop with such accuracy and regularity. "Killer" Hawkins played his usual good game, making numerous assists to his teammates who rarely missed converting his passes into points as the score indicated. Now to even the count with those boys from Woodstock on February 26.

Things are beginning to happen in the roped square since our first bouts with those Champs from Charlotte, N. C. Capt. Joe's boxers punched, danced, and jabbed their way to an easy victory over V. P. I.'s Junior Varsity leather pushers. Very impressive was the work of Bendure and Hewitt. It will be tough for coach Taylor to substitute a man in Tommy Wilson's weight. Tommy has a broken thumb, received in his bout last Saturday. We will miss you Tommy, so hurry that thumb along.

The JD's basketball team opened their season in fine fashion when they defeated the strong Waynesboro High School Midgets 16 to 14. "Pappy" Yocum and Peskin played a bang-up game for the JD's.

Ailing "Al" Pyles has taken up indoor sports on his own around a certain party's house. How about it Al?

The Blue and Gold teams, although not as strong as in previous years, are not weaker in spirit, as has been shown during the mid-winter contests. The student body in general is more interested in the outcome of their respective teams. That's what tends to develop winning teams in any school, large or small. Last week is a good example of what the writer has written above when, at Augusta Military Academy just before the varsity swimming team was about to leave the locker room, Lt. Onesty remarked to his boys that to his knowledge a Staunton swimming team had never lost a meet to the Fort Defiance boys as far as he could recollect. A cadet in the far corner was heard to say, "Even if A. M. A. has an undefeated team that's no reason why we should start loosing to them today." At that they went forth, swam and conquered Augusta 39 to 27.

I would like to see a picked company from S. M. A. drill against some near by military school. What do you cadets think? Could it be arranged Colonel?

Junior School Notes

Last week all the boys came up from town with valentines. They were very anxious to send them home. They also gave out some funny ones to the boys here.

Cadet Reagan has completed his model airplane glider. It is a very good one although he has not tested it yet.

A Naval Club has been started by Cadets Fred Ruble and Baker of the Junior School. At present they have twelve members, and all are interested in the activities that are being undertaken. They are stationed in the large room in the basement of the Junior School. They build and display models of naval ships and airplanes.

Last week we received a full edition of Compton's Encyclopedia. They are handsome red bound books. The boys are very much interested in them.

There is a rumor that we may go to Richmond to play basketball. We all hope so.

Last week Lieut. Clark's "Bull Dogs" met Waynesboro in a fighting game and won by the score of 16-14. The boys looked very good in their first game.

Last week Major Dodge took the members of the Farmer's Club on a trip to the stores that handled farm equipment. The boys learned a lot on this trip.

A stamp auction was held last Saturday in the play-room. The following boys were there: Christie, Lowry, Farr, Reagan, Jan Vandersluis, Griffith, and Lubin. Several good stamps were auctioned off. The stamps for the auction were put up by the boys. Trading in stamps was also carried on.

Monday we had a basketball game with Massanutten. We beat them 20-19. Everybody says we have improved a lot from the last game.

During the past two weeks we have had the following visitors: Mr. Forrest E. Mars, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Anderson, and Mrs. F. B. Ruble.

The typing club is in full swing. They have had a meeting already and Major Dodge has gotten some wall charts for practice periods.

During the Tome School swimming meet the Junior School had two relay races. Cadets Duffy, Yocum, and Weir defeated Cadets Dennis, Tullidge and Kormos. In another event Cadets Peskin, Mars, Christie, and Vandersluis, J. defeated Cadets Klunoty, G., Padgett, Robinson, and Farr.

The feature of the Tome School swimming meet was the splendid diving done by "Chuck" Griffith.

Hargrave Is Defeated By Staunton M. A. Five

Staunton Military Academy's basketballers registered an easy 53-34 triumph over Hargrave Military Academy on the winners' court yesterday afternoon.

Harry Harner, captain of the Blue and Gold, was the game's high scorer with twenty-two points; Ayres paced the visitors with sixteen tallies.

The game was a nip-and-tuck affair for the first few minutes but the Deymen gradually pulled into the lead and held it forth the remainder of the game.

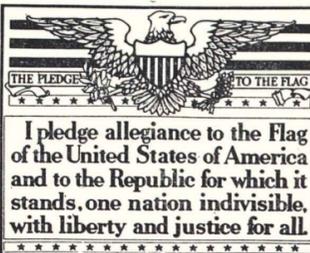

The winners held a fourteen-point lead at the end of the first half and ran their advantage up to twenty points at the close of the third stanza. From then on, other members of the Staunton squad saw action.

AMERICA FIRST

(From Washington's Farewell Address)

The unity of government, which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so; for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence, the support of your tranquillity at home, your peace abroad; of your safety; of your prosperity; of that very liberty which you so highly prize. But as it is easy to foresee that from different quarters much pains will be taken, many artifices employed, to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth; as this is the point in your political fortress against which the batteries of internal and external enemies will be most constantly and actively (though often covertly and insidiously) directed, it is of infinite moment that you should properly estimate the immense value of your national union to your collective and individual happiness; that you should cherish a cordial, habitual, and immovable attachment to it; accustoming yourself to think and speak of it as of the paladium of your political safety and prosperity; watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned; and indignantly frowning upon the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts.

Our Perils If Britain Is Defeated

(Evening Leader)

There are honest Americans who think it is silly to worry about anything Hitler might do to this country if he conquered Great Britain. Norman Angell, British author and winner of the 1933 Nobel Peace prize, agrees with them that Der Fuehrer won't come immediately across the Atlantic to attack the United States with an invading fleet of ships or planes. But he doesn't conclude, therefore, that America and Hitler can get along amicably without harm to the liberty held dear in this land.

Hitler would attack America with forces harder to combat than submarine or bomber, says Angell. He would help Japan and Russia to make trouble for the United States in the Pacific. He would step up Nazi and Fascist activity in Central and South America, using the millions of Germans and Italians there to gain control of governments, newspapers, and economic power. He would send there an army of German "tourists" or "commercial travelers" to work against the peace and prosperity of the whole hemisphere. He would not neglect any of the Trojan Horse possibilities within the borders of the United States.

It would be a kind of warfare difficult to cope with. If successful, it might make great military forces almost helpless. The threat of Hitlerism cannot be confined to any limited area. Every region brought under its domination endangers the remaining areas of freedom. The peril would be suddenly and tremendously increased by defeat of Great Britain.

Staunton Boxers Whip V. P. I. Freshmen

Captain Joe Taylor's boxers avenged their defeat at the hands of Central High School by drubbing the V. P. I. Freshmen 5½ to 2½ two weeks ago. From all indications the Staunton boxing mentor has produced another fine team—a team which should outclass any forthcoming opposition.

In the first bout of the evening in the 120 lb. class, Staunton's Tommy Wilson won a costly decision over V. P. I.'s Charlie Skinner. Tommy broke his hand in this fight, and it is doubtful whether he will see action again this year.

Jimmie Simmons, S. M. A. 127-pounder, won a close decision over the visitor's Tommy Nickerson. The fight was fairly even, but Simmons, who landed some nifty blows, probably won the fight by taking the offensive.

One of the most disappointing fights of the evening was the draw between Shipplette, captain of the Blue and Gold boxers, and Wingfield, of the V. P. I. team. It was Shipplette's fight all the way, but a couple of fouls prevented him from being a winner. This was the first fight that Hank has not won in his young boxing career.

The next two bouts in the 145 and 155 pound classes respectively were the quickest and most exciting fights of the evening. In the 145 lb. class, Charlie Hewitt, S. M. A., scored a quick technical knockout in the first round over Tech's Clyde White. Hewitt is gaining a reputation as one of the most dependable boxers on the Blue and Gold team.

Another quick TKO was scored by Staunton's Bill Bendure over the visitor's Jeff Waugh in the first round. Both boys came out fighting, but Bendure's lightning lefts and rights proved too much for the V. P. I. lad.

Charlie Harvell, S. M. A. 165-pounder, won an easy decision over Diggs of Tech. Harvell showed his old form by landing many powerful rights to his opponent's head and body.

In the final two bouts of the evening the Staunton team lost points. Read, 175 lbs., put up a game but losing battle against V. P. I.'s Robertson. In the unlimited class the visitor's Harding proved too much for the Kableites Rudy Frey.

Lobell, S. M. A. 165 pounder, fought an exhibition bout with Spedal of VPI. No decision was rendered.

The summary:
120 lb. class: Cadet Wilson, S. M. A. decisioned Cadet Skinner.

Junior Varsity Swimmers Defeat Massanutten 38-19

Coach Onesty was pleased with his inexperienced swimmers in that he discovered some hidden talent in various events during the meet held at Kable Memorial pool yesterday afternoon. The surprise of the evening was John Guth, last year's Junior School swimmer, who came through in the 200 yard relay when he swam his leg of the relay in 26.2. Jones, R. E., another Junior School product of last year's team, won a second place against his own teammate, Presbrey, who was swimming his first race of the season in the fifty yard backstroke. In an exhibition 75 yard medley relay the Junior School "Pee Wee" team of Vanderslus, Robinson, Mars, lowered their mark of 1:09.2 to 1:01.1.

Blue And Gold Swimmers Are Victims Of Strong Navy Plebes

Dropping their third meet in as many starts the Varsity swimmers from Staunton Military Academy bowed to the Navy Plebes, 49 to 19 at Annapolis Md. The Plebes captured six of the eight events. The Blue and Gold swimmers were deprived of their chances in winning the 200 yard freestyle relay when one of their men jumped on the take-off. Capt. Tullidge turned in his best time of the season in winning his specialty the 100 yard back stroke in the fine time of 1:06.8.

Order of events:
50 yard freestyle won by Warner (N), second Beloff (S), third Brown (N). Time 27 sec.

100 yard breaststroke won by Lawrence (N), second Erwin (N), third Dodge (S). Time 1:14.5.

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING

Pickles And Cream

Let all you hives look to your laurels now that our boy Newton has built up a reputation as a smoke-eater. Putting out infernos in South rank with deeds of great doing.

Some of the Senior class following their ballots last week, were adamant about making Judge Ward the "Greatest Lover." Another thought on the same subject—McGhee, our Social Hound and blind date mogul, was raving for three whole days last week about not being able to get a date himself. It seems that, as he walked down the street adjoining, you know where, a chorus of feminine voices sounded off with, "You're a horrid man, McGhee, a horrid man" . . .

I feel it is time more lines should be penned upon the blind dates mentioned above. Let me tell you about one I ran into a year ago. She had one of those double barreled names to go along with her personality. Something like Penelope-Olive; Oh rugged. I learned more things that night than I had ever learned before. She told me all about the family back in Hog View Valley. Lovely place, really. But, really, gents, if you take the attitude it's just an evening, so what can you lose, you'll have a swell time. Any-way there is always the river.

The Shrapnel staff with just about the same personnel as this rag's bosses, has succeeded in surrounding itself with all the material accoutments of efficiency. Here is hoping the intangible are also present.

Heard last week in Physics as Major James even supplied Melhado with paper. Hinkson: "Gosh, is there anything that this room hasn't been supplied with?" Small Frey: "Yes, . . . women."

Through all the clamor for a British Canteen Fund this feeble plea will no doubt, get little attention. But, gosh, people, how about an S. M. A. Canteen fund?

"Through a glass darkly," is the current verdict on most of the windows (where the panes are left) in Kable Hall. Even that old wheez about the time Greasy Gus was asked what the weather was outside to which he replied: "I can't tell, it is too cloudy out," is justifiable now.

Col. Tuttle: What is a machine gun? Supernat: Oh, that's one of those 37 m.m. jobs they pull around on kiddie cars, isn't it?

Servants

Guest: "Been long in the service of the family, Jenkins?"

Butler: "Indeed, sir, I am now serving the third degeneration."

He Was Right

A young man walked up to one of the clerks at the Employment Exchange. "Is this where you pay out eternity benefit?" he asked.

"My good fellow, I presume you mean maternity benefit, do you not?"

"No, I mean eternity benefit."

"Do you know that eternity means the hereafter?"

DON'T CARE A DAM.—The last word is not "damn," as generally supposed, but is the name of a coin of India valued at one-fortieth of a rupee, or less than one cent in American money.

S. M. A. Triumphs Over Blackstone M. A. 65-57

In one of the most exciting games ever played on the 'H'ill, the Staunton Military Academy basketball downed the highly touted Blackstone five 65-57. Tanner was high scorer of the game with a remarkable total of 33 points. Harner, Captain of the S. M. A. quintet, also compiled a nifty little total of 23 points. Altamuse was high scorer for the visitors with 20 points.

Reynolds, Blackstone forward, started the scoring with a field goal. Within two minutes Harner had scored three successive field goals to give the Blue and Gold the lead. This lead was held by the Deymen for the rest of the half.

The final two quarters of the game were highlighted by Tanner's remarkable shooting prowess. In the final two periods Tanner scored nine field goals and three foul goals, an average of a point a minute.

The lineups:

S. M. A.	G	F	P	T
Hawkins	2	0	1	4
Tanner	15	3	2	33
Jones	0	0	4	0
Harner	11	1	3	23

Totals	25	7	4	57

Referee: Mr. Dixon; umpire: Mr. Burntte; non-scoring substitutes: SMA: Staples, Savage, Ash; BMA: Groah. Free throws missed—Tanner 2, Harner 2, Enck 1, Reynolds 3, Altamuse 2, Blong 1, Young 2, Freeman 1.

Massanutten Turns Back Blue And Gold Five

The Staunton Military Academy basketball team lost its second state prep school game of the season to the Massanutten Military Academy five by a score of 59-51. Paced by their enormous center, Stough, who scored 31 points, the Massanutten quintet grabbed an early lead and managed to hold it for the remainder of the game.

Big Ed Jones led the Staunton attack with 15 points, while Tanner was runner-up with 14 tallies. Both Harner and Jones were obliged to leave the game during the second half because of too many personal fouls.

The Deymen turned on the heat several times in the final periods but were unable to quite make the grade. The final score showed the Massanutten quintet the winner by a score of 59-51.

The line-ups:

S. M. A.	G	F	P	T
Hawkins	2	0	0	4
Savage	0	1	0	1
Tanner	5	4	2	14
Jones	7	1	4	15

Angelone	0	0	3	0
Glunt	1	0	1	2
Totals	24	11	12	59

Referee: Glick; umpire: Hill; non-scoring substitutes—S. M. A., Staples; free throws missed: Hawkins 2, Tanner 2, Harner 3, Enck 2, Como 1, Warden 2, Stough 1, Read 2.

SMA Mermen Splash To Decisive Win Over Tome

Taking all eight first places, the well balanced home team finally found its form against the swimmers of Port Deposit.

Outstanding among the performers was George Tullidge in the 100 yard backstroke, the Staunton captain splashing his way to a new school record of 1:07.9 in this event.

"Jitters" Butner, swimming his second meet of the season for the Kableites, easily won the 50 yard freestyle in the sparkling time of 24.9.

The most exciting event of the evening was the 200 yard relay in which the Staunton quartet of Steele, Siefert, Eager and Beloff staved off defeat by inches.

This was the second victory within a week for Lou Onesty's mermen, as Augusta Military Academy fell victim to the greatly improved Staunton swimmers on Tuesday by the score of 37-29.

Summary:
50 yard free style: 1. Butner, S; 2. Beloff, S; 3. Keplinger, Tome. Time 24.9.

100 yard breast stroke—1. Dodge, S; 2. Berman, S; 3. Ellis, Tome. Time 1:18.5.

220 yard free style—1. Robinson, S; 2. Segal, F., S; 3. Le Brun, Tome. Time 2:47.1.

100 yard back stroke—1. Tullidge, S; 2. Pressley, S; 3. Van Clief, Tome. Time 1:07.9. (New school record).

150 yard medley relay—1. S. (Pressley, Mass, Offermann); 2. Tome (Van Clief, Ellis, Roy). Time 1:36.8.
