

SECTION 28. SCHOOL PROPERTY

1. Arms and equipment issued from the Armory are the property of SMA. To carry away, destroy, or dispose of this property is a serious offense.
2. Each cadet shall receipt for articles drawn, keep them in serviceable condition, and turn them in to the Armory before leaving school for a period of three or more days.
3. No cadet shall borrow, exchange, or transfer any rifle or article of military equipment at any time, or for any purpose, without permission of the PMS.
4. Breakages and damages of any kind to school property will be investigated and necessary cost of repairs or replacement shall be charged to the responsible person.
5. Any intentional damage to property, or any damage caused by gross carelessness, will result in severe punishment of the responsible person and the requiring of said person to pay for damage.
6. Arms and equipment will be kept in the racks provided and shall not be removed therefrom at any time except for cleaning and for drill or other military formations order under arms.
7. Scraping, filing, cutting, or otherwise altering a rifle or taking it apart is positively forbidden except as specifically authorized by the PMS or one of his assistants.
8. Each cadet will be held responsible for the cleanliness and good order of his arms and equipment.
9. The loss of any arms or equipment, or any part thereof, shall be reported at once to the PMS, by the cadet himself, and also by any officer or cadet who finds lost articles.
