We have tried to make the 1947 SHRAPNEL a memento that in years to come will bring back fond memories of days spent together at the Staunton Military Academy. Here are vivid graphic and pictorial records that stirred in us, even in the process of editing, a feeling of nostalgia. To the Corps of '47 we present THE SHRAPNEL.

The Editors

A SALUTE

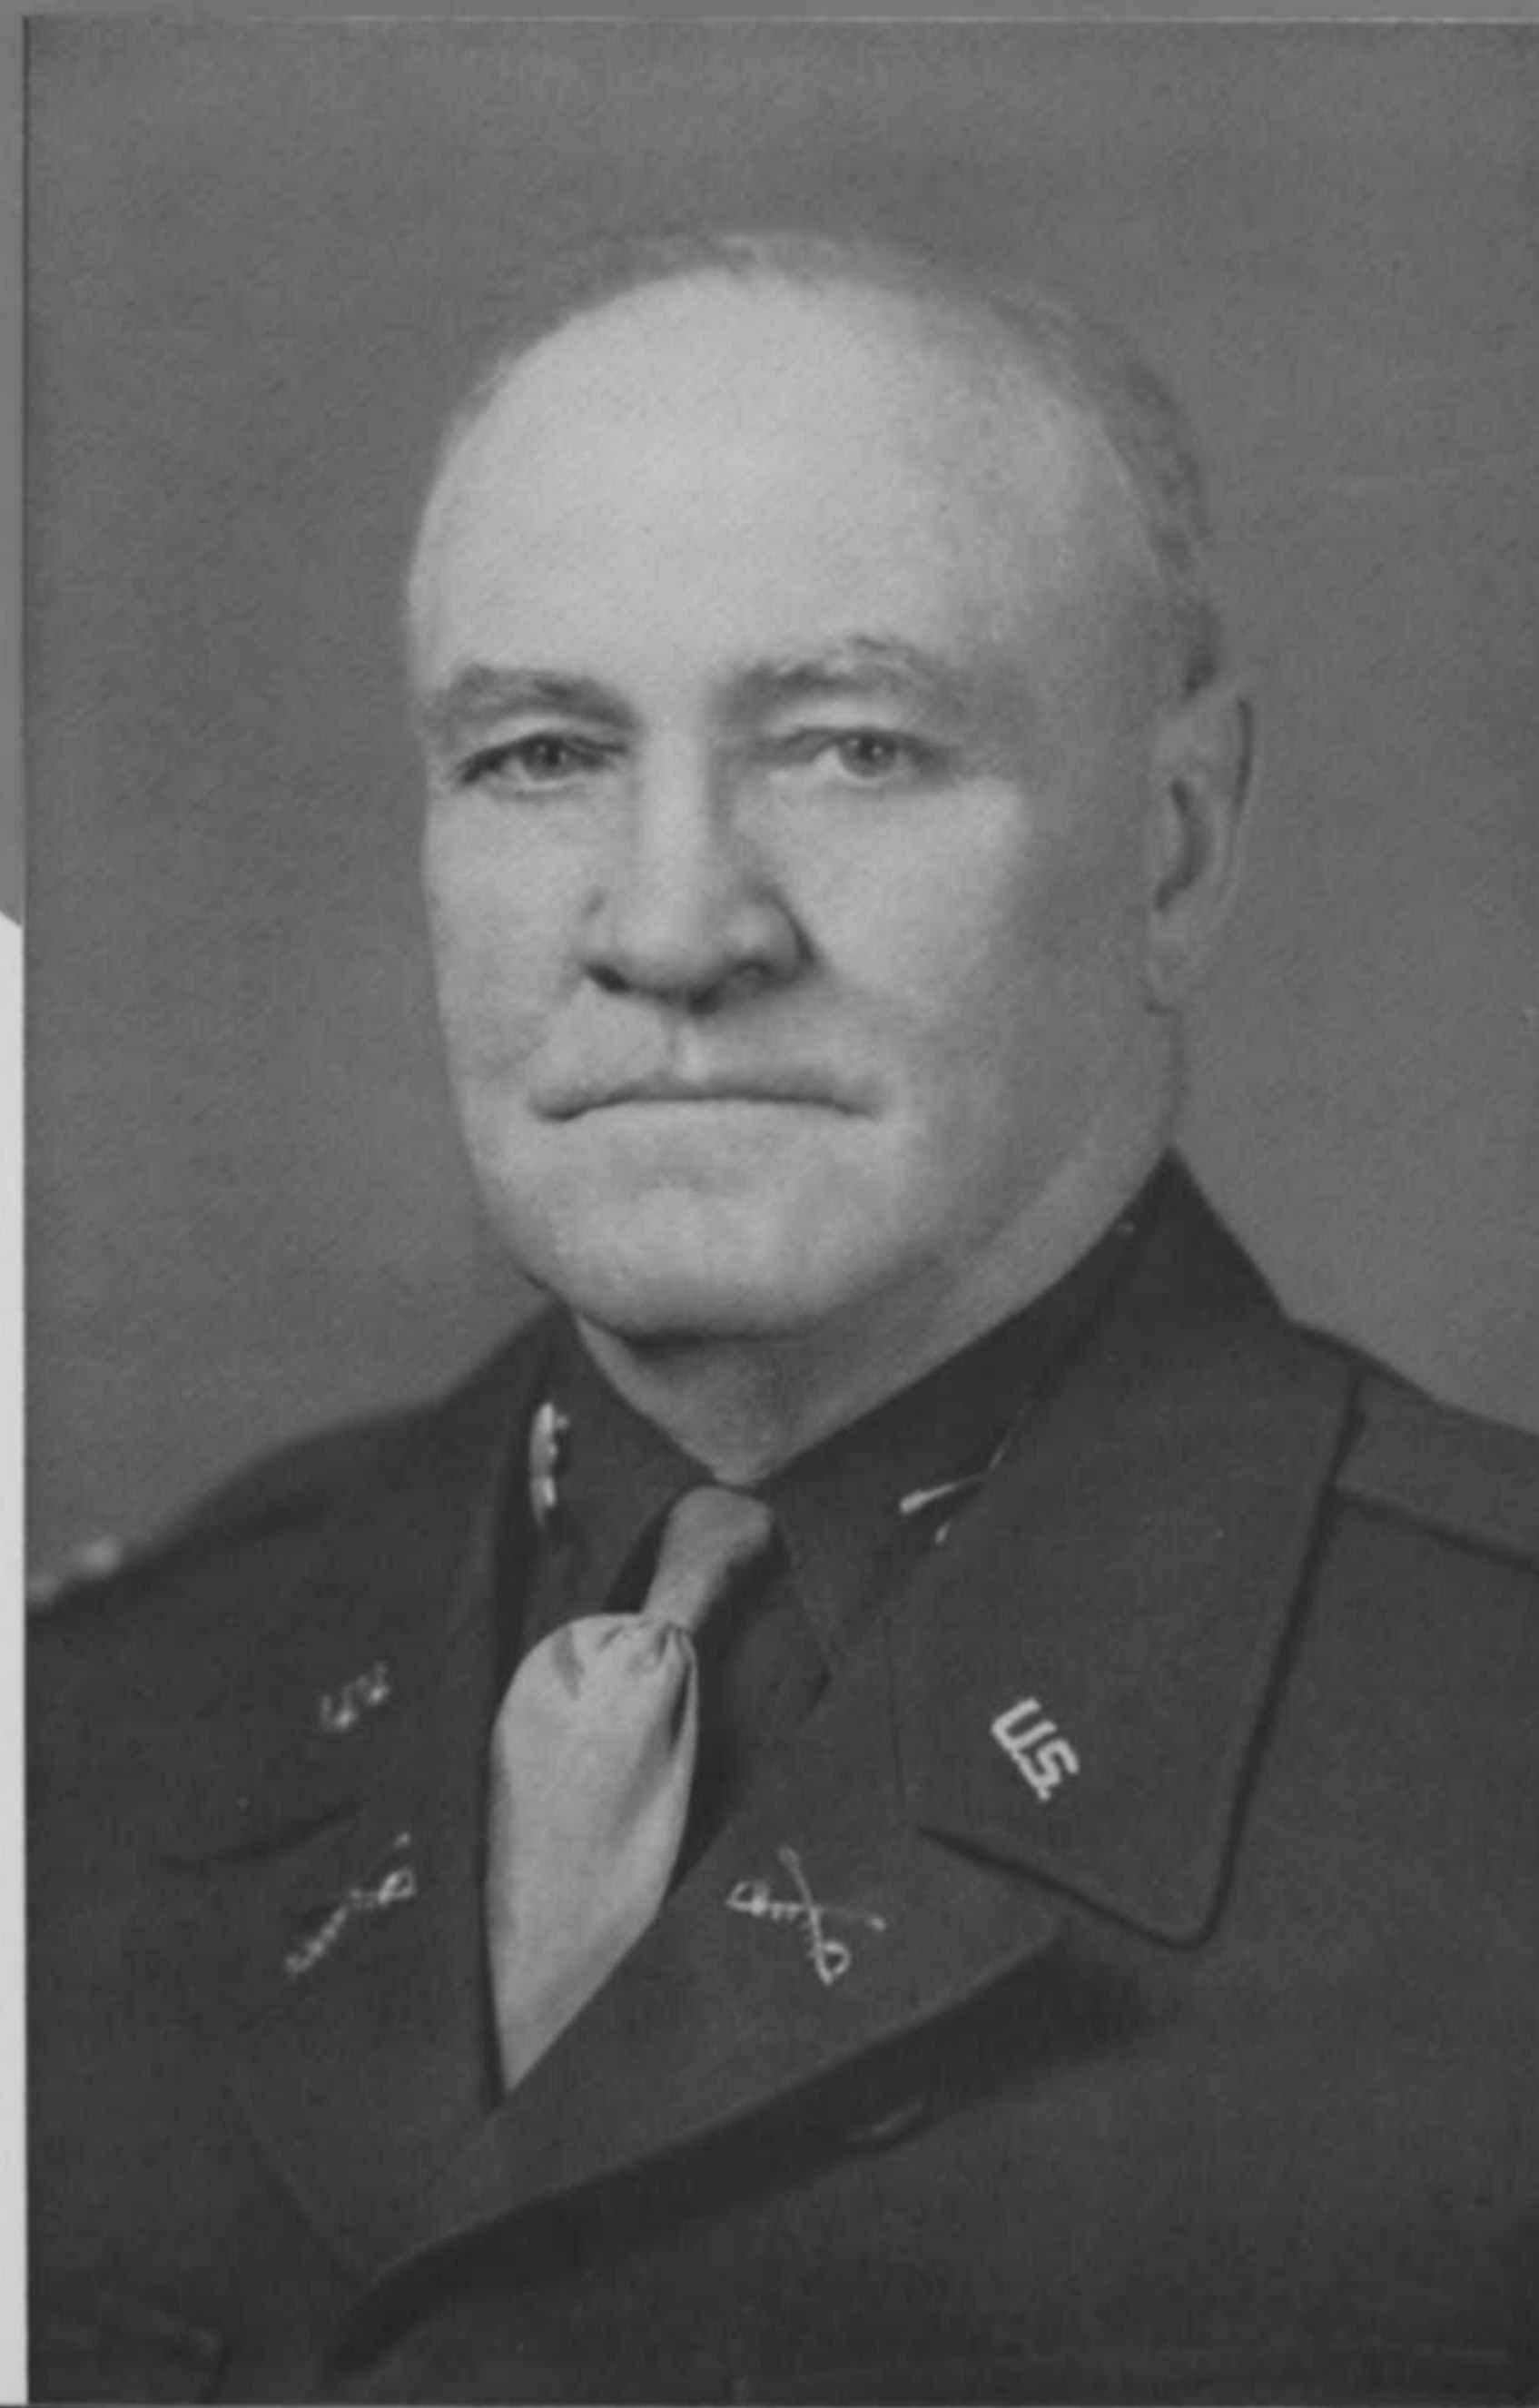

to a Soldier

To a man of sterling character and high ideals; to a man who has given of himself tirelessly and unstintingly to both country and friends; to a man who always has exemplified and who always will exemplify loyalty to a host of such friends; to a man whose superb character and outstanding physical prowess cannot be measured in mere words; to a man who will live forever in the hearts and memories of thousands of devoted boys; to this man the 1947 SHRAPNEL is respectfully dedicated—Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Taylor—our own "Colonel Joe."

Lt. Col. Joe Taylor

ADMINISTRATION

BRIGADIER GENERAL EARL MCFARLAND, B.S., M.E.
D.S.M.—Legion of Merit
U. S. Army Retired
Superintendent

General McFarland, a native Kansan, is a graduate of the United States Military Academy, West Point. Later he graduated from a number of army colleges including Command and General Staff School, Army Industrial College, and Army War College. A distinguished army career included services in foreign lands, academic duty at West Point, the War Department, and twice Commanding Officer at Springfield Armory. Currently General McFarland was the recipient of the Legion of Merit citation for "exceptionally meritorious and outstanding service as Commanding officer of the Springfield Armory in World War II in an enormous expansion program...that affected substantial savings in man-power and money and directly hastened the date of final victory."

The General is author of widely used textbooks and also was awarded the Distinguished Service Medal during World War I.

September, 1943, General McFarland became Superintendent of Staunton Military Academy.

Colonel Pence was born at Quicksburg, Shenandoah County Virginia. He was awarded the B.A. degree from Roanoke College and the M.A. degree from Columbia University and pursued additional graduate work at the University of Chicago and the University of Virginia.

He was an instructor in a rural school in his native county in 1912 and 1913, and from 1916 to 1919 the Colonel served as principal of two high schools in the same county. After this he came to Staunton Military Academy as an instructor in mathematics, and in 1939 was made acting-headmaster, until the following year when he was promoted to Headmaster.

COLONEL HOMER W. JONES

Colonel, Army General Staff Corps
University of Louisville, L.L.B.

Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration, M.B.A.
Business Manager and Treasurer

Colonel Jones is a native of Pennsylvania, an alumnus of several colleges, an officer in the Army, and now Treasurer and Business Manager of Staunton Military Academy.

Commissioned a first lieutenant in World War I, Colonel Jones spent the past thirty years at various army stations performing important work at each, attending different war department schools of advanced education and assuming greater and greater responsibilities with each year. World War II found him ready to assume responsibilities for the unprecedented jobs which the Army then undertook and carried through to victory.

Colonel Jones' service from 1942 to the close of the War brought him under the leading commanders both in the European Theatre and at home; for his noteworthy service he was awarded the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star, French Legion of Honor, and the Croix de Guerre with palm.

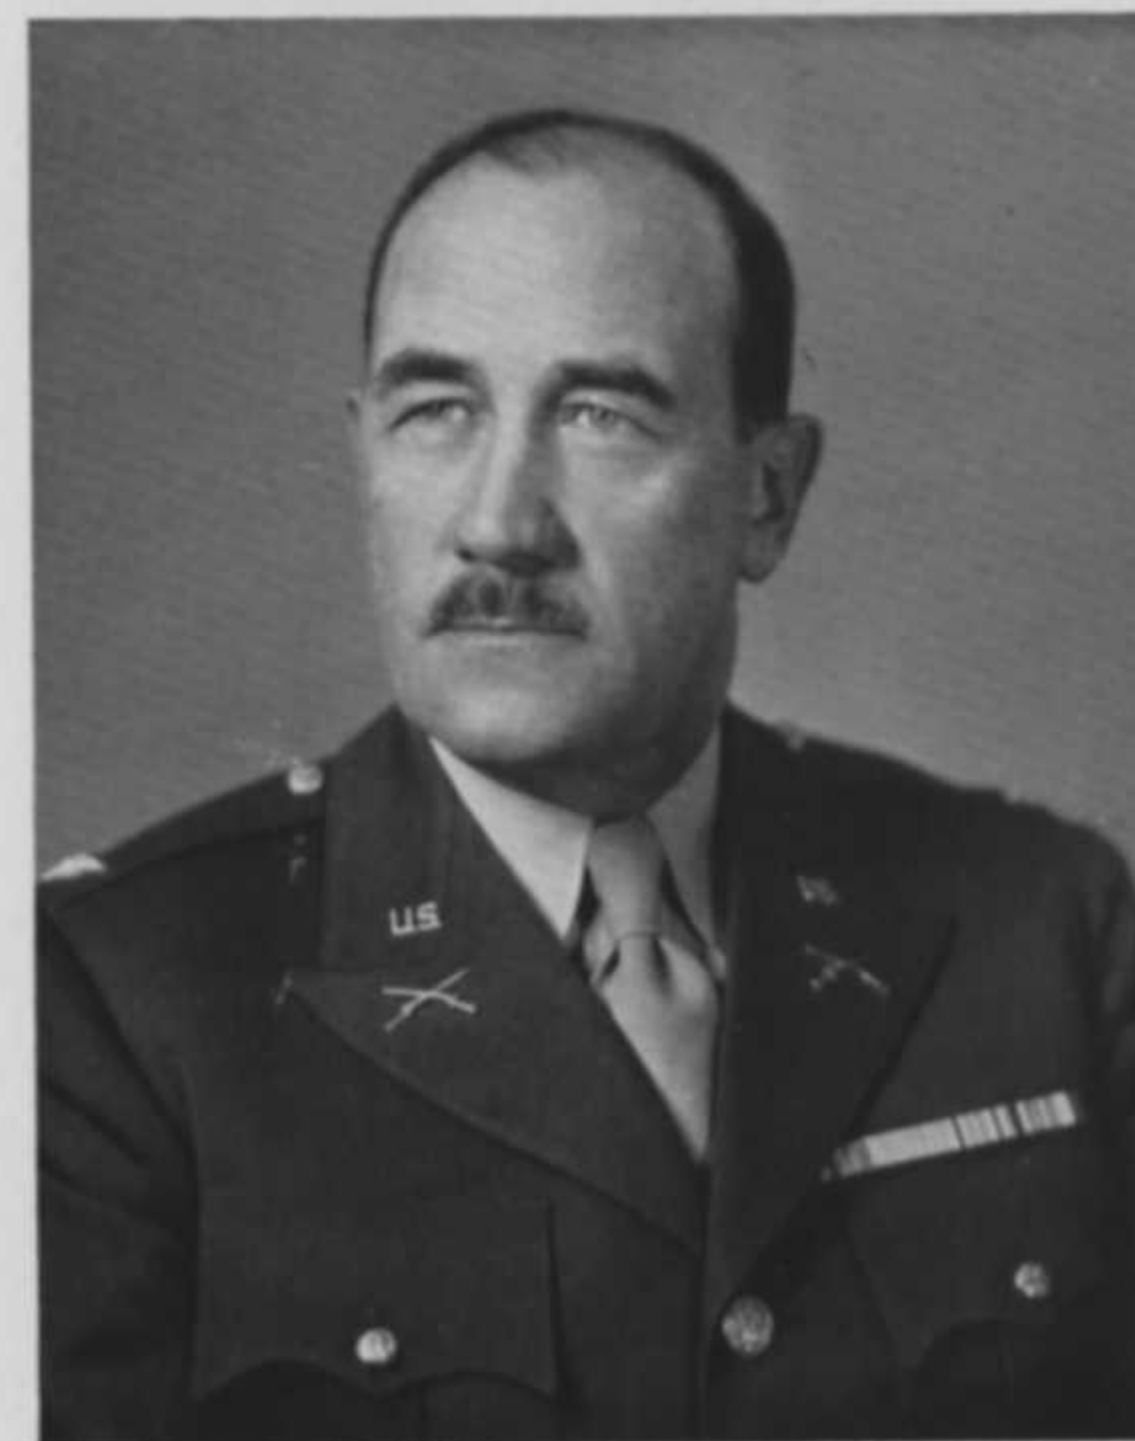

Colonel Strock was born in Boulder, Colorado. He was graduated from Colorado State College in 1915 with M.E. degree. Colonel Strock was commissioned Captain, Infantry, U. S. Army and served during World War I. Subsequent assignments found him detailed to Hawaii, the General Staff, Reserve Officers' Training Corps, and military academies. During this time Colonel Strock was graduated from the Infantry School and from Command and General Staff School.

After service in the European theatre in the early stages of World War II, Colonel Strock was selected for the important position of P. M. S. and T. at Staunton Military Academy by Major General Philip Hayes, commanding general, Third Service Command.

At the time of his retirement from the Army in 1946, Colonel Strock was appointed Commandant of Cadets.

COLONEL GLEN T. STROCK

U. S. Army Retired
Colorado State College, M.E.
Commandant of Cadets

COLONEL PHILIP H. ENSLOW, B.S.
Colonel, Field Artillery, U. S. Army
Professor of Military Science and Tactics

An alumnus of Staunton Military Academy and a native Virginian, Colonel Enslow returned to his Alma Mater the beginning of the school session to take over the duties of Professor of Military Science and Tactics.

After his graduation from West Point in 1923, Colonel Enslow joined the regular Army where he saw considerable service in the China-Burma-India Theatre under General Joseph Stilwell, during World War II. Colonel Enslow's experiences were many and varied in this area where, for eighteen months, he was in command of all American forces at the China-Indo China front. For his outstanding work Colonel Enslow received numerous Chinese decorations and was awarded the Legion of Merit by our government for "exceptionally meritorious service."

"Frankie"

SMA

There couldn't be a better beginning to our Senior section than to start with Frankie Allen—the biggest "little man," we'll ever know.

The whiz of the hardwoods, the terror of the opposing teams, the darling of the fans, the pride of S.M.A.—really there's no adequate way to describe the keyman of Staunton's greatest basketball five.

Basketball came first with our Frankie, but he was a well-rounded fellow, too. Did some quarter-backing in the fall, managed good grades, evidenced military genius by becoming a third year captain, and was at ease down M. B. C. way. Picked a peach down there, we hear!

The West Conshohocken flash is all-time with us.

"Sam"

"Sam" hails from the "Keystone" state—New Castle, to be exact. Sam has found the hills of Staunton a little different from the holes in his home state, but he has proved himself adaptable in his first year. Yes, Sam is a "first and only" year boy and has made his one year a good one.

Sam was one that helped his company on the football field, but his chief occupation has been making friends with anyone he happens to run across. His jovial good nature and happy-go-lucky smile have won the hearts of many of us who will remain his buddies through life.

We know Sam is going places, though we hate to see him go to places away from us. Just keep that smile, kid, and you can't miss.

SMA

Dave has been with us only one year, and maybe he has the right idea! He plans to join the Marines when he pulls out and judging from the way he's gotten along here, he'll make a success of himself.

He's kept things active in the Band, the Cotillion Club, and around town. What's more important, he has made many friends. Dave has kept up the academic end well enough to make this page; all in all, he's done a good job.

We hate to say goodbye, Dave, and we'd like to see more of your kind. Good luck!

"Slinky"

Frank "Slinky" Armstrong didn't attract much popular attention his first year at S.M.A. He spent that time quietly but methodically tearing the Annex apart. In his last two years he has risen by leaps, bounc's and explosions to the position of one of '47's most fabulous fun fellows.

Frank has as much intelligence as the next man; he has been coasting through here having a good time. If he chooses to do the same in the years to come, no doubt, he'll be successful at it. However, Frank has the ability to go places. We expect him to use it now when it counts. We want to see you in the papers, Frank. Good luck!

SMA

In the three years that he has been here "Ted" has left his mark around the school. A good student as well as a dead shot on the rifle team, Ted also managed to be outstanding on the military field. As a platoon sergeant in "A" Company he made himself known to every small private in that company. Every day you could hear him screaming in his best "top sergeant's" language at the "gentlemen" of his platoon.

In addition to these activities, Ted held the job of Treasurer of the Y.M.C.A. With him at this position we're sure that organization's books were always in the "black."

In spite of a Navy Dad, Ted has chosen an army career. He's aiming for that mass of rock on the Hudson, better known as West Point. Maybe another Chief-of-Staff, huh!

A remnant of the notorious noise-makers of North of the '45-'46 sessions, Art came back this year to get a February sheepskin. In his stay here, Art's ready wit and loud and frequent laughter made him a favorite with the Corps—not to mention the fair lassies who winter down town.

It was under Art's expert guidance that the "Blue Knights" established their reputation as a really danceable dance band. We'll see you, Art, and keep 'em playing.

SMA

Three years ago there came to S.M.A. one James McDermott Barnes, pronounced like the large structure one finds in the country, with the sole purpose of helping supply S.M.A. with her officer material of the future.

"Mackie," as he is affectionately known, was true to his word, and became an officer his third year.

Cadet Barnes' talents were not confined alone to gaining buttons, but he was also quite the wolf at the local girls' schools. He was constantly making pilgrimages to M. B. C. where he gave the girls a break.

"Mackie" is an all around swell fellow, and a grand friend. Doctor, they will like your bedside manner—success in the Medical profession!

Not long ago a young cowboy climbed out of the gopher holes of Oklahoma to go off to military school. With innocence in his eyes he wandered around S.M.A. wondering what was going to happen to him. Well, it happened, and now our little boy graduates, not too innocent, maybe.

Yes sir—Lloyd hails from the prairies of Oklahoma and is not quite used to "this here" weather of the beautiful Shenandoah Valley of Virginia. "Bev" plans to pursue law at the University of Virginia. Guess he learned to like the Valley, or something!

SMA

"Pete"

Here he is folks—Pete Blouin, Captain, "C" Company, President, Senior Class—and a regular good fellow. Pete's class was really '43 but the war interrupted his education and he came back to finish up with us.

Pete learned lots in the Marines and those three buttons were inevitable. Maine couldn't have picked a better boy to send down for the Southern exposure.

Pete's a fellow who has it—a man's man, a ladies' man, and our man! Has been a privilege, Calix Peter, and good luck!

Texas' loss was our gain when "Wee Willie" sacrificed cowboy life for the "military courtesy and customs" of S.M.A.

His five years on the "Hill" have been fruitful for Bill. He made many friends and rose to the rank of "Captain of the Little Men." That's "F" Company, to you. Bill's main interest was M.B.C., where he earned the reputation of "lover extraordinary."

Bill was a leading contributor to Captain Collins' gray hair, and spent his spare time trudging the asphalt. Inmates of Kable Hall still thank him for the "bell-less" reveille he attempted to inaugurate.

Well, "Rufe," here's wishing you the best of luck. We'll all miss you!

"Broo-Broo"

"Broo-Broo" hails from Long Island. He came here to visit the Sunny South (Brr.) He voiced his hearty disapproval of "Rebel Land" and he praised his wonderful Long Island.

"Broo-Broo" spent many hours working diligently on his studies and obligingly did his job. In his second year he made his claim to fame. Not only did he reach the rank of sergeant, but he became "B" Company's guidon bearer, and good he was, too. "Broo-Broo" also became an ardent participant in intramural sports.

An all around good guy, we hate to see him leave the "Hill."

"Bill"

Three years ago, on one of those opening days, an unknown tall and lean Californian crossed the continent to S.M.A. He is now fondly known as "Bill" to all of us.

Through his stretch he has made the Academic lists and received quite a few medals. Bill has been a mainstay on our rifle team, gaining more honors as the years roll by. He has been a steady at Madison College, but at the same time didn't neglect the locals. Now it's California, "right back where I started from"—and the U. of Cal.

We hate to see him go, but take pride in Bill's development and it's back "West," young man, a better man, and one we'll miss.

SMA

Another of a long line of New Martinsville boys. Like his predecessors he's proved his adaptability and gotten as much out of one year as a fellow could. His is an S.M.A. family and we wish there were more to come.

An astute "mountaineer," Bill got a lot out of his books and a lot out of his associations. At the same time he put a lot in—just proves the old adage, again.

Bill has all our best wishes in pursuit of higher learning—The "biggest little town" in West Virginia can well be proud of another native son.

To "Roc" the mountains 'round 'bout were nothing new—him being a North Carolina Blue Ridger. Don't misunderstand either, for "Roc" was no backward mountain lad, he out played and out maneuvered the best of them—save one cutie who vacationed nearby.

'Twas big doings the day they put football shoes on our boy—and he filled them well 'cause his line play earned him that nickname. It'll take quite a guy to fill those shoes, too.

Now 'tis back to Carolina and her gentlemanly leasures for Buck.

Fond wishes, suh!

SMA

Below we present Joe Butler, Captain, All-State Basketball team, Captain, All-State Football team, etc. and etc. Yes, "Lanky" is quite the ball player on the basketball court and football field. 'Tis rumored that Joe took this "sorta P. G. year" at the insistence of the coaches, or could it have been "M...., M...., quite contrary"?

Joe has fitted into things at S.M.A. so well that we feel we've known him all our lives. The life of the party—and it seems that life with Joe is just that—one big party! It will be hard to keep those clouds away when this big gloom-chaser has gone. We know he'll be making others happy and we're proud to say, "We knew Joe Butler."

"Dave"

"Club 500" was known for many things, but it was Dave Byron who gave it its real umph. During his maximum stretch, Dave compiled quite a record—part enviable and part not so much so.

Obviously not a one-track minder he garnered enough academic honors to be portrayed above, was in demand at the downtown schools, and treated himself to some special orders. Whatever it was Dave combined it with his favorite pastime—having fun. Not even his roomies were sure what would happen next.

Now, "Lord" Byron, you may come forth in all your sartorial splendor, without apprehensions.

Good luck, me lad!

SMA

And now, ladies and gentlemen, we're proud to present—George Callahan. Big George has been one of the guns on the "Hill" since he arrived four short years ago. George was one of Major Joe's boys and did right well for himself in the ring, and pretty fair on the gridiron, too. In fact, he did all right for himself in practically everything. Senior class officer, as well as the big wheel in the Cotillion Club, and a company commander to boot! George's rise to fame was swift—he was a company commander his third year—but he never lost that friendly touch. He was tough, true, but look and see who was the most popular guy in the senior class. Yup, George all right!

It will be a sad day when George leaves us, but we know he's destined to make a bigger name for himself in the world, and we know also that our George will be sorely missed.

"Dave"

Here we have a rare phenomenon—an officer that pleases the Colonel. Yes, Dave has more than just managed to get along in the military life, he knows what those two buttons mean. So do the fellows in his platoon, believe us. . . .

But don't think that Dave has spent all his time down on the drill field. Did you see the decorations for all those dances this year? Yes, I think that Dave spent more time in the gym than the basketball team.

There's one thing we can say about this lad without a doubt in our minds. Once he decides what he's going to do in this world, he'll go to the top. He is the type that will throw himself into his work and turn out the best job he can, because anything less than the best just doesn't fit with him. S.M.A. loses a really good officer in Dave, and everyone knows it.

SMA

"Pollo"

Four years "Pollo" chose the comradeship of the rank and file—must've liked it for he avows it's into the Marines for him. Confidentially, we believe it was private "Pollo" 'cause that was easier.

However, don't get the idea our Leonard was lazy—making these pages disproves that. And another thing—he made a lot of friends.

Luck to you, "Pol," old pal!

"Cat"

"Augie," "the Cat" has been one of our favorites. He got a lot done for a little fellow. Twice company commander, boxing prodigy par excellence, able track manager, student of parts, and popular plus.

Naturally "Cat" didn't always stick to the Blue Book, but who would want him to. 'Ere long he will don the silks, and many a winner he'll ride.

We'll be looking for some tips just for old times sake.
Good riding to you, little man!

Here is "Moose" Cermak, one of the few students who can claim the honor of having his name on a Latin II exam. If you don't believe it, just ask him; he still has the exam.

In his three years at S.M.A. "Moose" has made himself a well known personage on the "Hill" due to his ability to participate in any sort of activity. To show his versatility, "Moose" ranged from a swing-singing choir to playing two seasons with the J. V. where he was voted outstanding for his hard hitting play.

Now it's on to higher education. He goes with our best wishes!

Randy's fame lies in a winning smile and scads of friends. Belonging to the fabulous mob of the top deck of U. S. S. North 'twas many a good time we've had.

In academics, Fuzz managed to gather the "beloved 16" without too much rack or strain. In the military Randy was Supply Sergeant, which spelled backwards is "Goldbrick,"—a coveted position.

Ridgefield "Arch" has been an "inmate" the past two years. Like the rest of us, his "rat" year was one of ups and bendovers, but good conduct brought its reward of Staff Sergeant—term two.

Academic proficiency gained Headmaster's rank and certain other proficiencies brought top rank among the belles, both boarding and local.

Extra-curricular might have been "Arch's" middle name—Kablegram Staff, track squad, Y.M.C.A. and "Howie Rifles"—that's quite an array.

He has kept up his end in academics and military well enough to be a senior staff sergeant. As a matter of fact, Chuck seems to have a finger in every pie around.

Lannie seems at first blush to have hit the wrong school; we see by the papers that he hails from Annapolis, that his father is a naval officer, and that he plans to make a career of the Navy.

However, his record effectively dispels any idea that he must be a misfit. Technical Sergeant, "Howie Rifles," varsity swimming, varsity rifle team—far from incidentally, he's graduating—and he's made many friends. "Jack"

Four years ago a very skinny freshman entered the grey portals of S.M.A. This June he graduates, a still skinny senior. "Bones" has been around only two and one half years. No, nothing is wrong with our math—he spent his junior year and half of his senior year at home. Last December, however, something in the basement of Kable Hall lured him back.

It is fact, rather than rumor, that Jack is an excellent swimmer. At Annapolis he walked away with the honors in the 220. At North Carolina, he proved his talent the same way, ditto Brown, and ditto the Nationals.

S.M.A.'s pride and Lou's joy has scattered his love life from Carolina through Virginia all the way up to Ohio.

Son of a two-starrer, Jack departs for West Point in quest of some brass of his own.

Like father, like son is our bet!

SMA

"Jack"

This is smiling Jack, one of those boys with big ideas and plenty of gumption to put them across. In his two years here Jack has always been well liked, not only by his fellow cadets but also by the opposite sex. Girls don't usually seem to mean much to him because he is still waiting for the right one to come along. By the time he finds the right girl he will probably be a confirmed bachelor!

When we speak of rough and handsome, that's Jack. He is proud of himself with good reason. Jack has probably had to work harder for everything he received at S.M.A. than anyone else. He is naturally military minded, but no one seems to recognize this characteristic except his friends.

Jack will go far in this world because of his natural love of hard work. If he is not studying, he is always doing some task because he is afraid of becoming lazy.

We often wonder where Ed and his roommate, Larry, went when they left S.M.A. on Saturday afternoons. Some say that they roamed within a radius of one hundred miles but this has never been confirmed. Then there were those dances at which Ed always managed to evade the Stuart Hall chaperones. If Ed couldn't be found making love, studying, or writing for the paper, he could surely be seen in the sky over Staunton, where he often displayed his talents as a pilot.

Ed departs with best wishes to a friend from friends.

Ed was one of those boys who kept up a steady drone of conversation during C.Q., but always managed to get things done. He had to 'cause he was one of Colonel James' stars in Physics.

In fact, if Ed does anywhere near as well in college—and we know he will—it's a sure bet he'll be cum laude or something.

Q. reading the voluminous fifteen page manuscripts from his girl, he nevertheless cranked out the high marks. He was always ready with a good joke and a good slap on the back.

Many's the time that he has been bounced off the wall by his roommate, Herk, "the man mountain," but Pete was no jelly bean himself. He was way up among the big boys of "A" Company. Now he leaves the hallowed halls of S.M.A., no more will we hear the lumbering footsteps upon the already tottering third gallery of old North.

Dud has been with us for two years and during this time has been outstanding in both the military and the academic field. From a private his first year, he rose to the rank of staff sergeant. As far as his academic work is concerned, Dud has constantly been on the Headmaster's List for outstanding academic achievements, and has the honor of being one of the top fifteen of the senior class of '47.

To most people he was Edelman; among his intimates he was called "Mike"; only those who wanted something evoked "Mickey."

The year's pattern at S.M.A. had many ramifications ranging from the trials and tribulations of a "rat" to the sweat and grind of the football squad. However, he left the football squad upon the suggestion of the coach and then took up flying, where he secured his solo license and became a "hot rock."

"Big Al"

Who says you can't become a cadet officer in two years? This fellow's case is the answer to that. "Big Al" came to S.M.A. 'way back in '43, but there was a slight interruption in his education. Soldier life was his career for the next two years. Soon as things were settled, he returned to the old "Alma Mater" and immediately began his march up the ranks. Few men can be good officers and popular too, but Al was. Quietly Al became a "wheel." The boys in his platoon deemed him "small, but powerful!" As a matter of fact, this New Yorker served on the varsity football squad in '43.

Al was active in school affairs. And then there were the social activities. The man from Yonkers is strictly one of those potent "lady-killers." There are a lot of guys around here who will miss that "youse guys" man from Yonkers next year, and everyone joins in wishing him success.

"Geck"

Although he has been with us only a short year and one half, "Geck" in that time has become one of the popular lads. He has shown promise at almost everything.

A large number of the cadets have followed "Geck's" humorous wit in the Kablegram. He is author of the "Nosey Newser" appearing bi-weekly in the Kablegram. He is also president of the "Misdemeanor and Felony Boys" of Kable's Stable.

The third gallery of Kable is going to seem pretty empty next year when you're not around "Geck."

"Bones" has only been with us for one year, but it seems like we've known him all our lives. Yes, not only has "Bones" been an honor student and an all around good fellow, but he was the mainstay of our pitching staff in the spring. Of course, he had to be tied down on those windy days, but size doesn't mean very much when you have a heart like "Lefty's" and if he wasn't blowing over the opposing batters, he was certainly baffling them.

This is one boy who proved that good marks don't mean an unpopular book-worm. That Superintendent's List was a regular thing for John, but he has made more buddies in one year than many of us can make in four. An ideal combination, you must agree.

Well, Bones, when you leave us, please don't forget us. It's been a swell year. You batted a thousand in our book!

"Honest John"

"I object!" Where did that bone-chilling cry come from? Aha, John A. Gose, the lawyer of S.M.A. voicing his opinion on some remark made by the Honor Committee's prosecuting attorney. Yes, John is one of the chosen few who has that natural ability for law, and we're sure he'll succeed in this, his chosen profession.

"Honest John," as he is called, isn't on the side-lines in the social world. He has that inevitable "certain gal" that keeps him awake nights, and day-dreaming during Mess. In the activities at school he has entered wholeheartedly into intramural sports, and was one of the leads in the "The Last Mile." Shall we say he was one of the "Killers?" Or is that just a name he obtained at M. B. C. with the weaker sex?

If you could have seen little "Honest John" from Walla Walla when he first set foot on the "Hill" you would have wondered how he could make the grade. But he has, and what a grade! This Westerner has grown in stature and rank and in our hearts.

We wonder how he had time for his many extra-curricular activities, general News Editor of the Kablegram, a member of the Y.M.C.A., Glee Club, and "Howie Rifles." As a pilot, he frequently "buzzed" buddies here or at Stuart Hall.

Larry plans to attend the University of Pennsylvania, and we believe he will become as good an architect as he has been a Cadet.

Gaze gently upon the creation below. It is the dynamic "J. M.," the fabulous one, affectionately known as the "Blimp." Jack is something new in cadets, a politician. The Seniors elected him vice-president of the Class following his well-planned campaign which would have done credit to Chicago's mayor!

He never burned the midnight oil, but he still managed to make the Headmaster's List. He was a J. V. line-man and later managed the varsity eleven. Ham compiled an endless list of activities. He was associate editor of the SHRAPNEL which is praise enough (ahem?). "Scoop" was also one of the Kablegram's reporters and he gave the paper his best. A boy with a lot of tall tales, he always had a laugh for you.

Politician extraordinary, contributor plenipotentiary, and general good guy, that's Jack. Keep 'em smiling, Jack, and you might try for President, come the year 2000.

"Cort"

"Cort" Headland left Irvington-on-Hudson to get a liberal education at S.M.A. and found things a little more liberal than he expected. We have to hand it to him though, as he adapted himself well and yet kept plugging away to stand high in his graduating class and high on the military record. His quietness has been a distinctive characteristic in the environment. Not that you don't hear from him—he just doesn't say anything unless he has something to say.

"Cort" has an enviable all-around record for his three years here. If it's true that ability needs no advertising, he's sure to be a success in life. We won't wish him luck, he doesn't rely on it. It seems to be in the natural order of things that "Cort" Headland should be successful.

A contributor of the first rank, Heb has been associate editor and humor editor of the "Kablegram." He was also an editor of S.M.A.'s finest publication, the SHRAPNEL. As for the military, Larry was the capable leader of twelve men who would follow him anywhere. (Now no cracks about the blind leading the blind.) As if all this wasn't enough, we find Larry had the fair critters all about him but left them alone for a certain Philadelphia filly.

Mr. Wit of '47 through his good humor and good times has carved a lasting niche.

This was his first year with "D" Company and as their commander he turned out a group of boys that really went places as far as sports and military were concerned—made honor company in a breeze.

Three years ago a little, curly-headed fellow said goodbye to the big city of Philadelphia and mournfully boar'ed the dependable B. & O. for his first trip to S.M.A.

Almost at once our boy let his natural instincts run wild, and we found him deep in the depths of the Armory many a night, patching up the shoulder-breakers we know as M-I's. But "Press," alas, was not satisfied after two years in the flaming ball corps, so he switched to a company where he showed them he could handle a rifle as well as clean one.

Also as dependable "Kablegram" writer, basketball manager, and member of the "Howie Rifles," he did his job well. Besides, "Press" didn't altogether forget the fairer sex, but we hear there is someone pretty special at home.

Glad you're leaving a younger Hull to carry on!

A Pittsburgh importation, Joe invaded S.M.A. in the fall of '46 as one of the rare senior rats, and through ceaseless studying became known as a brain. He was no angel, though, and quickly proved himself one of the boys, as the Commandant will testify. In his spare time, Joe's wit and humor made "club 240" one of the hot spots of South.

Joe is one of the "hot lip" boys and was one of those whose smooth playing made the "Blue Knights" the great success it was. Yes, in one short year this boy from the "Smokey City" made a big name for himself, and it is with deep affection that we bid him good bye.

Joe tells us he plans to study engineering at Carnegie Tech, and fill in for his idol, Woody Herman, during the summer. Knowing what we do of Joe, we feel sure that he'll be making records for Decca and building bridges at the same time.

Along with his ready smile, deep down inside there is a serious side. Never by actual vote the most popular cadet, somehow he always has a laughing, joking crowd around him.

It's a long trip from Florida, and it would probably make most people tired—but not Bob. He's one of the three most "travelingest" boys in this school. You are right, the other two are roommates! All in all, it's a pretty exciting life here if you can live it like Bob did. "No, Capt.—someone we met downtown gave us those."

"Bob"

Here's another one of those "you all" boys, South Carolina's pride and joy, Perry Robert Langston Jr., Esq. He was a subtle Casanova who had an eye for Carolina girls only, so it's said. Bob was one of the charter members of "Club 240" and is remembered for swinging a wicked broom (sweeping, that is). After hard work and study on military he managed to rise to the grade of "glorified private," (Corporal, to you).

He has done much work in the field of dramatics here at school, and some day we expect him to be director at the "Gayety." Bob has had a near perfect record in the Commandant's Office and an equally good one in the office of the Headmaster. We know you'll make good at M.I.T., but the old gang wishes you lots of luck anyway.

"Jackson"

Jack hails from the lake country of New York State and this June he is going back. What we want to know is—what will Staunton do without him? Jack has made good use of his three years on the "Hill" and has made a raft of friends—male and female. In his last year Jack made a cast down at M. B. C. that landed a chick anyone could be proud of, but we hear that he also has a few in Elmira. It sure is hard to keep up with this kid.

Jack is not one of these boys who can coast through school, but with some hard work he may leave us this year? What Jack will do when he gets through with college, is anyone's guess, but we all know that whatever it is he will make a good job of it, because he is the kind of boy who can go places if he wants to. It's been a wonderful three years with you kid, and don't forget to look any of us up if you can. The welcome mat will be out for you.

SMA

This year, his second, Bill was the color bearer, and a good job he did of it, too. It's easy to see that Bill took quite readily to this military "stuff," too, for it's off to V.M.I. next year and four more years of grey. (that's either admirable or questionable fortitude.)

In "A" Company, Bill did his part on the football team and on the drill field. When that diploma is handed to this lad, you may rest assured that it was well earned and that he leaves with the fond adieus of many friends. The best of everything to this lad from Ohio.

"Chuck"

It will be a sorry day for S.M.A. when Chuck leaves the "Hill." He is one boy who was really on the ball in everything he did. In the two short years that he honored us with his presence, he probably accomplished more than most cadets do in four years. His studies have always been tops, where we find him a regular member of the Superintendent's list.

Showing his versatility, Chuck was a star diver on the swimming team both years and took up track on the side. After J. V.-ing a bit he sparked "C" Company in various intramural sports. Chuck added to this a second year first sergeancy. Pretty good, huh?

This gives you an idea of the kind of fella Chuck is; he's the boy everyone likes to have as a friend, and now that it's off to further education all the good wishes from his many friends at S.M.A. go with him.

Here's General (nuisance) Robert E. Lee, who hails from "way down south" in New Jersey. "Leo," true to form as general, has led the famed second gallery gangsters to success in all their major operations.

"Leo's" usually seen running around barracks digging up enough money to finance a trip downtown. This isn't his only running for he's been a member of the track team for two years, and every afternoon you can see him faithfully running cross-country to get in shape. Robert E. added a little football, some military, and reasonable academics to be well rounded.

"Leo" is looking forward to going to Dartmouth and he departs with out wish of lots of luck in the future.

"Ace's high" at S.M.A. He's been tops in most endeavors during his two years with us. Military—a staff sergeancy in two years. Sports—he was one of the stars in "D" Company's championship football team and was captain of their basketball quintet. But, academics is still "Ace's" forte—he's way up in the Senior Class listing and was always a handy fellow to have around during exams for help in that last minute cramming. Because studying comes as easy as it does to "Ace," M. I. T. should produce another Phi Beta Kappa.

The Kablegram was quick to spot his talents, and our boy was appointed Sports editor his first year on the paper.

All who knew him at S.M.A. are sorry to lose a friend, but the local belles are spared the heart break, because "Ace" also was true to his two nieces back home.

"Johnny"

Leaving the Ohio Valley and his old Alma Mater, Magnolia High School, where he had graduated three months before, Loeher climbed the "Hill" one September morn to established residence in "South," the melting pot of all rats. Much to his chagrin, the West Virginian found no moss in 104, where he could lazily spend the hours with his shoes off.

A true New Martinsviller, Johnny proved to be of sturdy character; in fact, he is listed as one of the most efficient broom-wielders on the second detail. And he soon found himself on the Headmaster's List proving that he has other things in his head besides memories of days gone by when he could stroll down the streets of that West Virginia village in civilian clothes.

All of this is over now, and John will be on his merry way to some institution (of higher learning, that is.) He'll remember these days in Staunton, though, and Staunton will remember him.

"Frenchy"

Just wave a French flag, and suddenly "Chuck" appears shouting, "Vive la France!" Though he's a Frenchman by birth, sense of humor, and lover's technique, those three words are about the only French he knows (eh, Captain Harnly?). "Chuck" certainly is up on his international language, however, and perhaps he uses his romantic background to win the hearts of all the local belles. He definitely has the touch. Chuck has also climbed to the rank of a lieutenant, no less.

One of the remarkable things about "Frenchy" is his taste for music. The remarkable part of it is that someone from North Barracks doesn't strangle him sometime for playing his records at 4.30 a.m. "Chuck" and the other "bookworms" in 500 have a passion for things such as 30 hour per day bridge-playing and trying to sound like a menagerie.

Seriously, though, "Chuck" is a swell fellow and always ready to aid in the fun. Bonne chance a vous, monsieur!

Here's one of the "Big guns" of the day, whether it be personality or what have you. Although he has trouble with the big words in his girl's letters, Les gets around quite well with the women!

When important personages roll into S.M.A. ace photographer Longcrier is on the job. And when the occasion calls, sharpshooter "Red" pulls the rifle team through to victory.

Gentleman, philosopher, big gun, are only a few traits of this young man. But that is to be expected of an aristocrat of the "Deep South." We look into the future and see the Longcrier Construction Co. at the top of the list. The big red-headed guy in the main office can only be one person.

"Skip" is one of the many boys here from the "smokey city" of Pittsburgh. When he first hit Staunton the clean air startled him but he wasn't long adjusting himself.

After adapting himself to the school, he began his career of hard work and as much fun as he could find. He is a good party boy, a lover of sports, and does a lot of hell-raising on the side, but he is one of those lucky guys who very seldom gets caught.

Although he loves to play, he is in the upper brackets of most of his classes. Because of this we are sure he has plenty on the ball and expect that he will make a success of anything he attempts in life.

So long "Skip" we regret to have to say "good-bye" and "good luck."

In his quiet, unobtrusive way he has had his hand in almost every major undertaking of the past four years. As "barracks commandant" of the Bowman House, for the past two years, evidences of his strong character and outstanding leadership are continually manifested in the fine records set by his ex-charges.

Athletically, Paul managed Colonel Joe's last outfit. Lest we forget or let him, he was on "Perini's Nine."

Paul's amiable personality and winning smile have earned him many long and enduring friendships. We're grateful that he's leaving a younger Mathews to take his place!

During his three years at S.M.A., "Mute" has not only shined academically, but also has had the honor of being the Editor-in-Chief of the Kablegram. Many were the nights that "Big Fred" slaved to get the copy of the Kablegram assembled.

We will all miss the legendary boss of Kable Hall, who ruled with an iron hand even though he had captains and majors about him. Certainly Fred will capture the friendship of the cadets at the "Point" just as he did those at S.M.A. Hail to a swell guy, a future West Pointer, and another brass hat!

"Bill" has been outstanding in his studies, in sports, and other extracurricular activities and even with the fairer sex. A regular on the Superintendent's List, winner of medals, and all that kind of thing, Bill was known to his friends as one of the "brains."

Bill has a wonderful personality and can make friends with anyone, male or female. Some people have it and some don't! Bill has so much of "it" that he's in the unique position of choosing his college, and among the "Big Three," too.

Wilber is a kind of fellow who can do anything or go anywhere with anybody—the kind of guy you always like to have around. Don't think he hasn't done all right with the women either—if you don't believe us, ask a certain lass at M. B. C.

Militarily, he has done O. K., too. To top off his career, Wilber was a senior class officer and a big wig in the Cotillion Club.

Not bad, eh?

There goes taps. Guess we'll see if "Lain's" back. Wait a minute! What is tonight? Friday! Well, there's no use looking because he's over at Faye's house and won't be back 'till "later"! (and later!)

Ebullient Lain Peck, unofficially known as "Faye" or "polka kid" hails from Meriden, Conn. Yankee land and is one of our faithful fellows. He has been a steady companion of the Superintendent's List, and that sort of companionship isn't easy. He has played some intramurals, too. A. Lain is Staff Sergeant of the band and plays the trumpet vociferously. Our boy is also a member of the immortal inhabitants of West Barracks.

Best of luck at the Citadel fellow. We hate to give up one of our best.

A member of the "Howie Rifles" for three years, an excellent student, a truly large and lasting group of friends—all this does not begin to describe the exemplary life Steve has lived with us.

His activity in good fellowship, intramural sports, hunting and flying have given him a background that will be of benefit to him for the rest of his life. Steve's quick wit, pleasing nature, and sense of humor are added advantages.

In losing Steve, the school will have lost a fine student and a real fellow.

Big Lou Perini has kept things lively around Staunton for the full complement of four years. Everyone knows Lou; he's gotten by the academic and other authorities safely, but it was close at times.

Lou has stuck with the ranks throughout. He's made a lot of friends, too. Incidentally, Lou was one of the big wheels of U. S. North. Yes, Lou was the leading figure on gangster gallery and organized many of its escapades. Lest we forget, emulating Dad, Lou sponsored the Staunton Braves—he won't forget!

We believe you got something, Big Lou!

Here we present the great, the colossal, the stupendous mastermind—Richard Henry Pershan. "Dick" holds the unprecedented distinction of being honor student his three years on the "Hill." He's the only cadet to ever read "Casanova's Memoirs" under Major Brown's watchful eye and still pass. Maybe that's his idea of science. Deductive or inductive reasoning?

Besides being academic top, he has been active in intramural sports, on the J.V. football team, and tried some tennis. Eventually Richard H. made some "connections" around town, and we hear, leaves a broken heart or two.

R. H. intends to be a lawyer, and well he might. No ambulance chasing for him—he's headed for the Supreme Court—maybe, Chief Justice.

From a sunburned, shy little "rat" to first captain, top athlete, honor student, and number one good fellow is Ed's success story—all within the normal four year span.

There are many other honors, too—all of which Ed worked for and deserved. And don't forget Ed bore them with dignity and is as unspoiled a big wheel as there'll ever be.

Ed goes on to West Point where we know he'll make good—our only consolation is he's leaving us a kid brother.

When this overawed little boy first walked through the "Sally Port," he never dreamed of the achievements to follow. The food and general atmosphere must have agreed with Fred because he is now quite the fellow around the campus of S.M.A., and also the campuses of our local female resorts.

Also athletically minded, Fred became a J.V. standby and an active intramuraler. But it wasn't all play and no work for Fred, because he has managed to get himself into Northwestern, which everyone can't do nowadays. Fred had the rare habit of stopping everything else when strict C. Q. sounded and devote the rest of the evening to his academic work, nor did friend Fred neglect the military.

Carry on the good work in college Fred!

All-state this, all state that, captain this, captain that, athlete of the week, best athlete—Who else, but the "Monk"? This boy is an athlete's athlete, and the coaches' dream.

"Pick" has also had time for a few extra-curricular activities, like girls and books, and believe me he has done all right in both. M. B. C. has seen him more than any of the other schools but believing "variety is the spice of life," he gave others a break, too.

A ten gallon hat and a pair of boots in the form of Texas Jack Plumly strolled into S.M.A.'s south corral some years back. Now he's leaving, but not without fond memories, both his and ours.

His relentless propaganda about his hinterland prompted C. and C. awards. However, Ben was in Rome and quickly did what the Romans did. That is, he studied a bit, drilled a bit, played a bit, and devoted some time to social activities. His success is clearly indicated in the activity list above.

We return you to Texas, a broader man perhaps, but with—Buena Suerte!

"Jim"

"The Scarlet Scooter," "Big Red," or "Rex," that's our athletic, good natured, smiling Jim Pope. Big Jim has saved many a game for the Blue and Gold. When we had been thrown for a loss and needed yardage, it was generally the red-head who would dash around end to give us another first down. "No, Jim—it was a right end run." "I know—but Punky was sitting on the left side." And in the spring when a young man's fancy turns to golf and gals, Jimmy was down there pounding out home runs for our nine.

We know how Jimmy managed to graduate, if you want the whole truth. How anyone could possibly fail those courses like B.A., Typing, Business English, et cetera, is beyond us. Jim still wonders why everyone else didn't make the Headmaster's list.

So it's off to Georgetown for a couple of years of football. We won't ask Georgetown to take care of him 'cause he can do that, but we do wish that you would keep an eye on him, Punky.

Since that time, Bruce has done puh-lenty O.K. for himself. Last year, as First Sergeant of "F" Company, he proved his ability as a leader. This year Bruce commanded "E" Company.

We mustn't overlook one of Bruce's greatest "abilities." Through the years he rarely missed a dance, and never went stag. He has a "certain one" down at M. B. "Cy" has had things under control for three years here; only three, because he was a rat, when a rat was a rat. If that's not clear, read the latest rat rules.

Cy, was a rat, then a cadet, then a gun, and finally a wheel. He keeps things rolling pretty thoroughly. He sticks in the sphere of influence of the Superintendent's list, the third gallery Kable revolves around him, and he was a regular ball-bearing for the "The Last Mile"—the one we never thought they'd make.

If "C. Q." makes West Point, he may some day be the axle on which the War Department turns—or an engineer in charge of greasing axles. But let us no longer circumvent the issue: "Cy" is one of the guys whose graduation is a loss both to his fellow cadets and to the administration.

SMA

Ah—what do we have here? None other than that man, Shollar, sometimes called "Killer." We can't quite figure out if he got that name from the play he was in or from the way he handles the women—probably the latter, because who else gets mysterious telephone calls from all parts of the country? But all kidding aside, John's one of those cadets who passed the NROTC exam, so he must have something between his ears besides a mental conception of a luscious blond.

Besides collecting girls, we find that Johnnie has entered into intramurals, was vice-president of the Y.M.C.A. club, and he has been our emissary for two years at the Y.M.C.A. conferences at Natural Bridge.

That Typing II is a rough course, though, and if you don't believe me, ask Sam. Sam lives in 412, the Veterans Separation Center—at least he sleeps there every once in a while, we hear.

Since his return Little Sam has spent his spare time—the part that he spent on the "Hill"—playing J.V. football and writing letters. On the football field his size was no handicap, and he must have done more than all right in the letter-writing field 'cause those pale blue scented envelopes kept pouring in.

When this little man leaves us, he will leave a big spot in our hearts 'cause everyone who knows Sambo knows also that they don't come any better.

"Telf"

Gary, the shiek from Forest Hills, came to us September 20, 1945 and graduated June 3, 1947. He was well-known by all including the Commandant.

A playboy with the girls and with the books he always came through when the chips were down—if it was a 90% he needed, O.K. he got it, if it was that pretty brunet, he got her, too. Further, it is easier to out-theory Einstein than to out-argue Gary.

Gary returns to the metropolitan area now and we're going to miss him.

SMA

"Pete"

After three strenuous years, Pete's at last on his way to civilian life—and college. Lehigh has been chosen as the lucky college and they are waiting for him.

Pete has been the swimming team's regular "butterfly" and his ability in that and other events has assured many victories for the tankmen. He's a man of many hobbies—sailing, drumming, and working with mechanical devices. He "eats up" swing stuff, too.

A wry one is Pete from Rye and one to whom we hate to say "bye."

"Dick"

"Dick" in his quiet, unassuming way has managed countless honors in his five year stay. He has worn them with dignity and credit.

Always a good student he gave freely of his time to extra curricular activities. Whether it was varsity or J.V., Dick, if not participating, was there anyhow. Loyal, level-headed, and a great all around guy—one of our best citizens.

We know a real future is ahead, fella.

SMA

"Towney"

During his two years, "Towney," as he is called by his friends, has become well liked by everyone. He is the type of boy who makes friends easily; the type who will always help you out when help is needed—a regular guy. Towney is the kind of friend you like to share your good times with as well as your troubles. Also, if he isn't participating in a sport, he is always lending his support to our team.

He has been a hard and earnest worker in his studies, a striper in military and a conscientious supporter to intramural activities. We will sincerely miss "Towney" who is a swell friend and a great guy.

Coming from a real S.M.A. family "Archie" has had a lot to live up to—so much so that it would have gotten a lot of us down—but not Archie. Gradually, but surely Arch made his own way until now another graduating class lists the name "Tullidge" high on its honor roll.

We're not in position to judge, but if the earlier Tullidges were better, then it's truly a remarkable family. Judging, as we must, by Arch, we'll say it anyhow.

Archie, it has been good having you as a friend and it's with sincere regret we part.

SMA

You know what we must think of a guy when we ignore a name like Wentworth and call him "Vet"—a true test says we.

After a cautious start "Vet" expanded his activities until he was into practically everything. He did O.K. academically, won himself a varsity "S", helped with the publications, held a rank, and rated tops with the gang—what more could a fellow do.

Send us some more boys from York, "Vet."

It's easy to understand how a fellow like Joe did well academically.

Good luck, fella!

"Willie"

Back in '43 a happy little boy joined us—imagine it happy at the opportunity to be a soldier! Today he should be happier 'cause he graduates as Cadet Captain Marshall Welch.

Don't get the idea that that's all he did, for he was a top marksman, an intramuraler, fair student, and good fellow. On the side he was a gadget fixer. Being perfectly normal, a M. B. C. cutie also figured in his activities.

Willie speaks of dentistry by way of Dartmouth. It'll be easy pulling for you, Marshall.

"Tom"

Tom has spent two fruitful years with us here in sunny Virginia. On the academic side, he was well up on top being a steady member of the elite Headmaster's list. But Tom was not a bookworm.

His two years were well spent fighting on the football field and basketball court for the big boys of "A" Company.

Tom is off to the Lake country of New York, and we know he'll be a big success at the home of the "Big Red"—high above Cayuga's Waters.

Introducing "Willow" Willison—the boy who was the sparkplug behind old "B" Company's intramurals for the past three years. His first year he was a member of the championship football team, but this year he turned his attentions to the J.V. and turned in a swell performance on the gridiron and basketball court.

Pennsylvania is Bob's home state and Allegheny College will welcome him next year. It's been good to know you, Bob, but three years is too short.

SMA

As the Williamses come and go they seem to improve—or is it fair to compare brothers, perhaps we should just be grateful there is still one around.

Brother Donald C. entered without fan-fare but departs with lofty rank. That lofty means something, too—from five feet one inch to six feet three inches. Actually that's rather indicative of Willie's progress at S.M.A.

Honor student, rifle team captain, Cotillion Club, "Howie Rifle" and in demand at the local girl vacationing spots.

We're proud, Mamma and Dad can be proud, big brother likewise, but Donald says watch the kid brother—that's Donald, modest like.

Willie must like his state of Virginia, for it is off to Hampden-Sydney upon graduation. We know you'll go places, fella; and the best of everything.

Abner came to the "Hill" two years ago and promptly moved into the Band, where he became one of the most helpful members. Not only did he work on the drill field, but he fought for them in intramural sports.

Abner came all the way from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, but he is returning to his native state to attend Miami University next year.

Didn't you like our Shenandoah Valley weather Ab? We can truthfully say, last year was unusual.

"Stu"

In the summer of 1945, "Stu" received the news that he was to become a cadet at S.M.A. That day shall be forever remembered in "Stu's" memory. He arrived at the Academy in gay spirits and kept them all through his stay here.

After some acclimation difficulties Ward caught on and since then it's been a picnic. The second year found "Stu" residing on the third gallery of the good old U. S. S. North. "Stu" lived the life of an Eskimo that winter with his fellow cadets of the third gallery, but when spring rolled around Mr. Groundhog found "Stu" making friends with the night owls around Staunton.

"Stu" has proved himself more than capable and when our generation takes over we know that he will be bearing his share of the many responsibilities.

SMA

Here is "Joe" that smiling Romeo who blessed us with his presence in the fall of '46 as one of the few senior rats. Joe, who can always be identified by that well known laugh of his, is one of the boys who supply that snappy cadenza for the corps—yes, our boy of humor is a drummer—and a good one at that!

Although he studied very hard for those better than average grades of his, Joe still found time to play for the Band in intramural sports.

Looking toward the future, we see Joe studying at college during school months and then during summer he plans to "beat the hides" with some local band.

"Wood"

Fun-loving Little Lee of the Old Dominion State has put his beloved hamlet, South Boston, on the map and made a host of friends while proving himself a regular fellow in any man's league.

Actually "Wood" qualified for that coveted parchment back at midyear but hung around because he liked it. It paid off too, for Lee was exposed to a little more "learning," won himself a varsity "S" in baseball, and could relax a bit.

Someday it'll be Dr. Lee P. Woody and we believe he's got something because his sunny disposition is a real tonic to start with.

Even the 1947 Senior Class must end somewhere, and though it was arrived at alphabetically we couldn't conclude our section with a better guy.

"Wick" has done right well by himself these two years—that goes for academics, sports, military, clubs, and publications.

Excuse us for taking some of your space, "Dick," but men like you, and a hundred sixty odd others, are what made '47 the great class it is!

GENERAL ORDERS NUMBER 14 23 January, 1947.

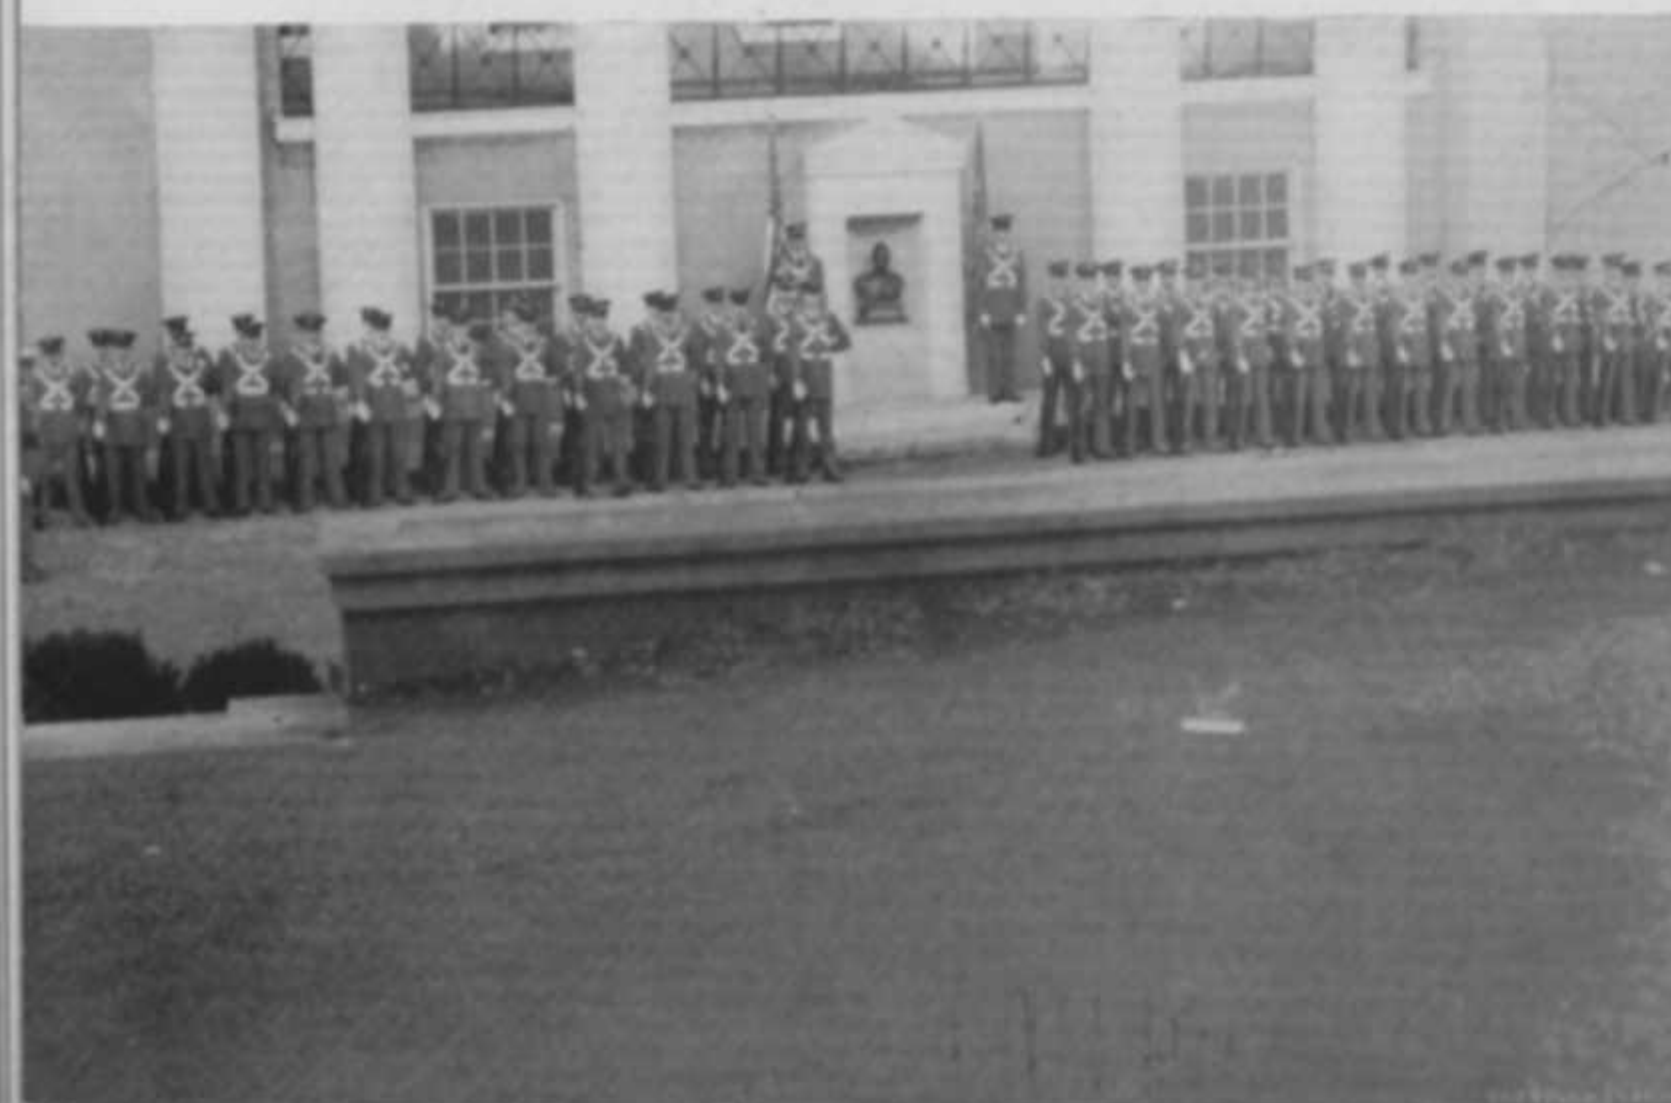

The participation of the Howie Rifles in the dedication of the Howie Memorial held at this academy yesterday has evoked the highest praise from all sources. Pledged to carry on the great spirit and strong character of Major Thomas D. Howie, the members of the unit bearing his name conducted themselves with great credit. Their erectness of carriage, splendid appearance and fortitude were spoken of and praised by many visitors and observers.

The President and members of the Board of Directors have given instructions that their appreciation and thanks be extended to the members of the Howie Rifles.

I extend my personal thanks and appreciation to the members of this inspiring unit of our Corps of Cadets.

A copy of this order shall be furnished to each member of the organization.

EARL McFARLAND,
Brigadier General, U. S. Army,
Ret., Superintendent.

COTILLION CLUB

The Cotillion Club had an excellent session highlighted by four gala formals—Thanksgiving, Military Ball, Spring Formal, and Finals. Six informals supported their program. Dean Hudson returned to the Academy for his sixth engagement at Finals.

Congratulations to President Callahan and Club members, and to Major Webb, Lieutenant Ridgeway, and Captain Onesty.

Standing—Cameron, Parke, Nurkiewicz, Vandersluis
Seated—Fletcher, Peter, Callahan, President, Jeutter, Hilton

Y. M. C. A.

Under the capable guidance of Lieutenant Parker, the Y.M.C.A. enjoyed a definite rejuvenation. Bi-weekly discussional meetings proved most stimulating.

The ten school Conference at Natural Bridge proved the finest gathering in many years. Current vital subjects and the application of Christian principles to daily life were handled in a most inspiring manner.

JOHN R. ISBELL.....President
 JOHN P. SHOLLAR.....Vice President
 EDWARD B. ATKESON.....Secretary
 L. STAPLES PIERCE.....Treasurer

Seated—Church, Pierce, Atkeson, Isbell, Shollar, Paulus, Kelly, R.
 Standing—Lt. Parker, Dickinson, Beveridge, Edelman, Wyche, Hale, Crane, Goecker, Roberts, R.

S. M. A. PLAYERS

After several years idleness the S. M. A. Players were reorganized under the capable direction of Lieutenants Earley and Funk. This season was featured by the presentation of "The Last Mile," a play by John Wexley.

The Corps fully appreciated the fine performances by each member of the cast. Likewise much credit is due Lieutenants Earley and Funk for their untiring direction. Realistic stage settings and effects were handled by Lieutenant Parker. Among the cast were Cadets Shollar, Gose, Klutinoty, Atkeson, Rumbough, Hilliard, Lancaster, Langston, Kelson, Crandall, and Crisp.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club enjoyed one of its more successful years. A large number of Cadets participated under the able direction of Lieutenant Sellers.

Highly delightful programs were given at the Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. In addition, the Club performed before young people groups at several churches. Pleasing concerts were held at Stuart Hall and the University of Virginia.

Henry Hoyle and C. Q. Shelton entered the Virginia State Music Contest conducted in Roanoke.

CAMERA CLUB

The S.M.A. Camera Club was reorganized this year by many of the school's ardent amateur photographers. Through an exchange of knowledge every member has gained a better understanding of this interesting hobby. The chance to learn and practice darkroom procedure was made possible through the club's efforts.

STAMP CLUB

For the first time in many years there was an active Stamp Club. Cadet De Lancy was chairman of the organization and Lieutenant Wuest was faculty adviser.

Weekly meetings enabled S.M.A.'s philatelists to trade and buy stamps and gave them an opportunity to exchange ideas in the various phases of stamp collecting.

STARTING ELEVEN

BOB SPEARS-F.B. JOE BUTLER-E. WOOD BEASLEY-T. BILL WESTON-C. BOB HORVATH-G.

JIM THOMPSON-T. JIM POPE-H.B. BILL WILHELM-E. PAUL PETRUCELLY-G.

The 1946 grid season proved one of the best in S.M.A. history. The third consecutive State Championship, nine wins in ten starts, and five All-State players substantiate this claim.

Wonderful support by the Corps, sound coaching by mentors Simmons and Bryant, both former Blue and Gold stars, strong leadership by Captain Bob Pickett, and excellent team spirit all contributed to the splendid record.

S. M. A. 39—WILSON HIGH (WASHINGTON, D. C.) 7

Uncorking a neat aerial and smooth running attack, S.M.A. crushed the Wilson Hi eleven 39-7 in the 1946 season's inaugural. Allen Jones had a hand in four of six S.M.A. T. D.'s.

S. M. A. 18—W. & L. HIGH (ARLINGTON, VA.) 12

Bouncing back on the great play of Bob Spears and Jim Pope, The Blue and Gold came from behind late in the contest to win one of the season's toughest battles 18-12. S.M.A. counted twice in the last five minutes.

S. M. A. 14—WASHINGTON AND LEE UNIVERSITY J. V. 0

Steady offensive and defensive tactics brought a 14-0 victory over Washington and Lee University J.V. in the first game away from home. Jones scored both touchdowns and Spears converted each time.

S. M. A. 6—VALLEY FORGE M. A. 0

In a driving downpour, the "Fighting Cadets" downed Valley Forge in a hard-fought battle 6-0. Bruising Bob Spears broke away for an 89 yard scoring jaunt. Wood Beasley was the defensive star at tackle.

S. M. A. 19—BORDENTOWN M. I. (TRENTON) 0

Journeying north the Kableites evened the annual "North-South" series by downing B. M. I. 19-0. Bob Spears and Frankie Allen, subing for injured Captain Pickett, led S.M.A.

BUCK BUCHANAN-G. CHUCK NEVENS-H.B. ALLEN JONES-H.B. DICK PRICE-E. FRANKIE ALLEN-Q.B.

PAUL NURKIEWICZ-F.B. DOUG SMITH-C. DICK GUERRERA-E. BABE DAHLGREN-G.

S. M. A. 6—GREENBRIER M. S. (LEWISBURG)—24

Greenbrier caught our eleven on a "down day" and riddled with injuries to administer the season's only setback. Jack Vollner, first G.M.S. star, sparked the victors. Jim Pope and Paul Nurkiewicz played valiant ball, but couldn't overcome the absence of Spears, Pickett, and Jones.

S. M. A. 32—COON HIGH (WILSON, N. C.) 6

Trailing 7-6 at half-time, Staunton came back with a rush to rout Coon Hi, 32-7. Spears, Butler, and Pope were unstoppable after S.M.A. started rolling.

S. M. A. 25—FISHBURNE M. S. (WAYNESBORO, VA.) 0

More or less under wraps, the Varsity took to the air to down a fighting Fishburne, 25-0. Spears, Butler and Wilhelm took aials for scores and Center Weston dashed over with an interception. Bob Horvath had a field day at guard.

S. M. A. 13—MASSANUTTEN M. A. 7

A rugged Massanutten eleven threw a scare into S.M.A.'s title bound squad as the indomitable Bob Spears fought his way to a game winning six-pointer in the waning seconds—score S.M.A. 13—M.M.A. 7. Captain Pickett tossed a forty-nine yard aerial to Joe Butler for Staunton's other counter.

S. M. A. 25—FORK UNION M. A. (FORK UNION, VA.) 0

The annual Thanksgiving Day classic saw the Blue and Gold reach its peak in fashioning a 25-0 triumph over favored Fork Union. Spears was great with 19 points and got superb support from Jim Pope, Bob Pickett, and Chuck Nevens in the back field. The game was really decided in the line where our forward wall proved too much for F. U. M. A.'s bohemuths. Turkey Day play clinched All-State berths for End Joe Butler, Tackle Wood Beasley, Guard Bob Horvath, and Center Bill Weston, as well as nonpareil Bob Spears. It also stamped Jim Thompson, tackle; Paul Petrucelly, guard, and Bill Wilhelm, end, as future greats.

With four members of 1946's fine team returning, basketball coaches and enthusiasts predicted 1947's great record. Alternate captains Frankie Allen, Joe Butler, and Bob Pickett together with Bob Spears, were the veterans back. They were joined by first yearman Bill Wilhelm who fitted perfectly into S.M.A.'s style of play.

The "Five Smart Boys" completed their regular schedule with twenty-one wins and one heartbreaking loss, the latter to powerful Navy Plebes. Throughout the difficult season the quint displayed near perfect floor work, precision like offense, and aggressive defense. The five starters were perfectly balanced and ably supported by Dick Price, a substitute with starting potentialities, Bill Weston, and Harold "Herk" Wolfe.

Team spirit, the Corps' enthusiasm, and capable direction by Harry Dey, veteran cage coach, and Eddie Bryant, enabled the 1947 five to be rated one of the nation's top prep school quints in compiling the best record in modern S.M.A. athletic history.

Post season tournaments saw S.M.A. run away with the Washington, D. C. Invitational Prep School Tourney and finish runners-up in the Eastern States Championships at Glens Falls, New York.

Individual honors were well distributed among the regular five. Bill Wilhelm led the scoring, closely followed by Joe Butler and spark-plug, Frankie Allen. Bob Pickett and Bob Spears, playmakers, were tremendous on defense and contributed their part to the offense. Even oldtimers concede the 1947 team the rank of All-Time.

Coach Lou Onesty's mermen achieved the most impressive record in the history of swimming at the Academy. Victorious in all dual meet competition, including a strong Navy Plebe squad, the team ascended to new heights by annexing the Southern Interscholastic Championship at the University of North Carolina, the Brown University Interscholastics, and finishing runners-up for the National Prep School championship.

Jack Craigie was the outstanding individual performers. Undefeated all season, Jack was crowned the 100-yard and 200-yard free style prep school champion. Co-Captain Ed Peter and Dick Woodruff were close behind in the 50-yard. Jan Vandersluis, backstroke ace, and Jerry Jeutter, diver par excellence, were dependable performers. The supporting cast included, Pete Teneau, Mercer Russell, Chuck Lee, Jim Montgomery, Joe Perini, and Doug Smith. Combinations of these men made the relays virtually invincible.

BASEBALL

JOHN WATSON
Captain

Handicapped by a lack of pitching strength the Blue and Gold baseball nine experienced the poorest season in many years. Gradual improvement resulted in better performances late in the season. Captain John "Red" Watson, proved an inspiring team leader. Jim Pope, Joe Collinson, and Bill Weston paced the sluggers. Jake Jacobs did a good job at first and Bob Pickett did yeoman work in the infield, outfield, and on the mound. Harry Dey, again, directed the team.

VARSITY SQUAD

RIFLE TEAM

After dominating State, Hearst, and Army competition for three successive years, the rifle team failed to approach '44, '45 and '46 form. The marksmen broke about even in dual matches but were unsuccessful in bigger matches. Undismayed, the squad continued to practice all spring in preparation for next year—such determination will pay off.

Captain Don Williams was the leading shot, followed by Les Longcrier, Don Macdougall, Stacy Duncan, and Lannie Conn. Sergeant Raymond Slattery was again at the helm.

TENNIS TEAM

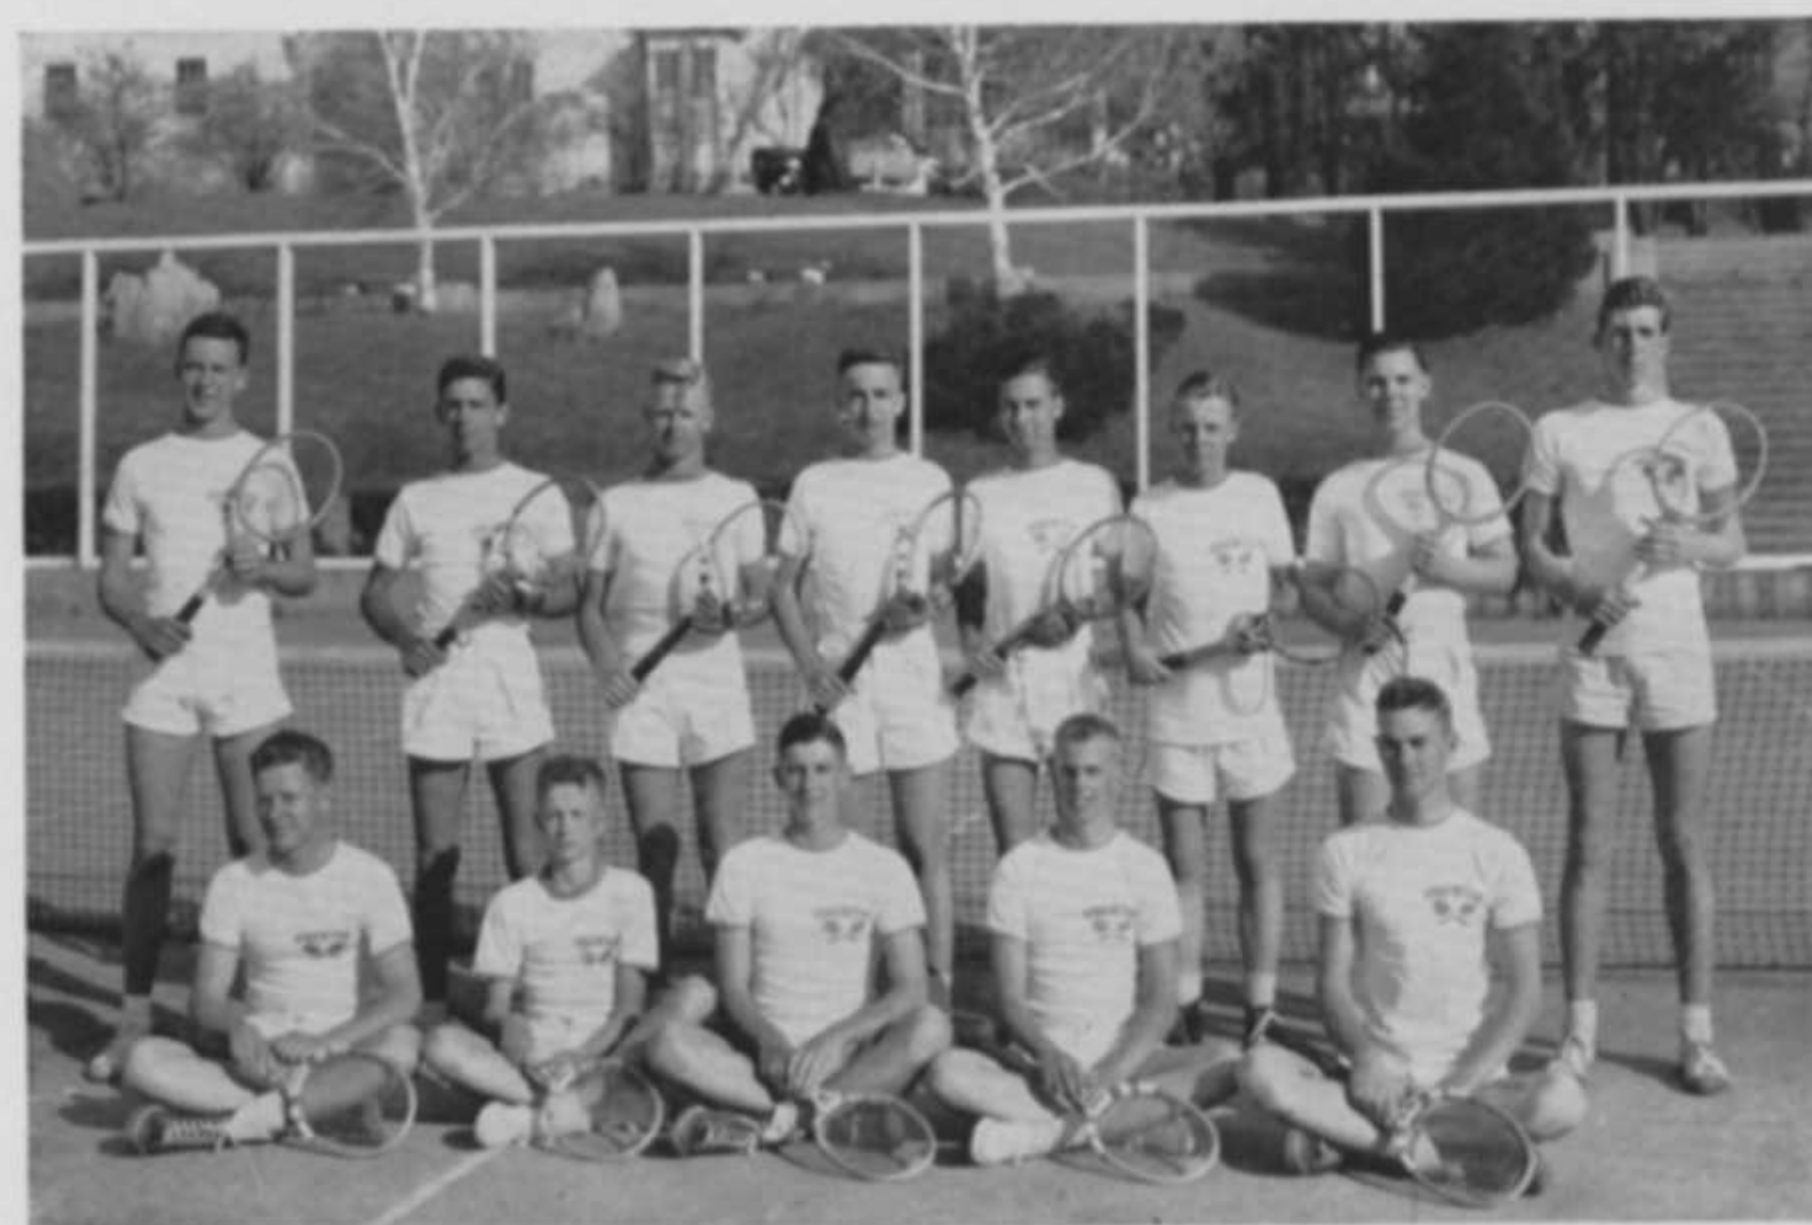

STATE CHAMPIONS

Encountering the stiffest schedule ever arranged for Blue and Gold racket wielders, the 1947 tennis team garnered the State title with a brilliant nine and one record. Capain Caldwell Ragan, Buddy Dey, Vincent Richards, Jr., and Harry Philips formed the "big four." They were ably backed up by Dick Katz, Dave Wood, Jack Bolton and Phil Wrench. Coach Franklin Lander contributed a marvelous job.

Tennis interest received great stimulus through exhibitions at the Academy by Vincent Richards, Sr. and Fred Perry, two world tennis figures.

Highlights of the season were two victories over Woodberry Forest, State Prep School Champions, and a gratifying 5-4 win over George Washington High of Danville, State High School champions.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Employing a two squad and two schedule approach, Coach Don Chalk accomplished dual purposes with the 1947 Junior Varsity football boys—interest and participation for members and experience for future varsity play. Both squads turned in superior records as the Junior Varsity proper won six and lost one and the "Lightweights" won four, tied one, and dropped one. Sam Story and Bob Laney made ideal co-captains.

Experience

LYNCHBURG ENGRAVED ANNUALS ARE BUILT UPON YEARS OF EXPERIENCE
AS SPECIALISTS IN THE FIELD OF SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

IN successfully fulfilling the requirements of the modern College Annual Staff we have combined a comprehensive and systematic servicing program with that high standard of quality so essential in the production of fine yearbooks. Lynchburg engraved annuals are built by an organization specializing on school annuals exclusively, thereby assuring each staff of the personal and intelligent assistance so necessary in the planning and designing of a truly satisfactory book.

Builders of Better Annuals

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!
